POTTERS OFFER A PROTEST AGAINST PROPOSED TAXES

East Liverpool Delegation In Columbus Confering With Legislators.

BURDEN OF THE COMPLAINT

Is That the Proposed Legislation Is Unfair to Their Interest.

THE FARMERS ARE HEARD FROM

In Numerous Petitions Against Any Change in the Game Law—Labor Measures And Other Bills Now Under Consideration.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, February 25. — Messrs. W. L. Smith, of the D. E. McNicol Pottery company; H. N. Harker, of the Harker Pottery company, and J. J. Purinton, of the United States Pottery company, acting as the representatives of the potting interests of East Liverpool and Wellsville, arrived here yesterday to protest against the passage of the Willis administration bill, which seeks to impose a tax of one-tenth of 1 per cent on the capital stock of Ohio corporations.

The gentlemen met the members of the Columbiana county delegation and made known to them the wishes of the interests they represented. They also met a number of other influential members of the legislature, with whom they discussed the bill. Senator Connell and Representatives Buell and Crist went over the situation carefully with the East Liverpool gentlemen and each one assured them that their action would be in accordance with the interests of their constituents. This is tantamount to a promise not to support the bill in its present form.

An avalanche of protests against the Willis bill from various places in Columbiana county poured in on Monday, most of them from East Liverpool, Salem and Wellsville. The burden of the complaint of the East Liverpool delegation was that the bill was an unfair discrimination against incorporated companies in favor of partnerships and individuals, and that it was class legislation. They made it plain that the East Liverpool manufacturers were quite willing to pay their proportion of the taxes, but were strongly opposed to standing for more than their share. Messrs. Smith, Harker and Purinton returned home at midnight.

Mr. Crist occupied the floor of the house for some time yesterday afternoon. He introduced petitions galore from the farmers of Columbiana county, who want no change in the game law. He also offered a petition with 40 signatures opposing the abandonment of the canal system. The Crist bill authorizing the residents of St. Clair township to improve the Calcutta road from Calcutta south to Liverpool township will probably go on the house calendar this week.

A measure which will have the active support of labor unions was one introduced on Monday afternoon by Mr. Kinney, of Cuyahoga county, amending the present lien laws so that in all cases claims of laborers and mechanics shall have preference over all other claims. The same interests which will support this bill will fight another introduced by Senator Wirt, of Youngstown, on Monday afternoon, which seeks to give the governor authority to appoint special policemen for service at plants of corporations. This bill was introduced at the behest of a number of large corporations, who would avail themselves of its provisions in case of a strike or other trouble at their plants.

Messrs. Buell and Crist, it is known positively, will vote for the Beal local option bill, which is scheduled to come up in the house on Wednesday. The state liquor league has no hope of defeating the bill in the house. In fact, they doubt very much whether they can prevent its passage in the senate, and from the present outlook the chances of the measure becoming a law seem favorable.

THIEVES WORKING WITH DILIGENCE

Wholesale Thefts of Lead Pipe Reported at Police Headquarters.

ARRESTS ARE TO FOLLOW

Chief Thompson on the Track of Guilty Parties—Plumbers And Others Have Been the Victims of the Crooks—Plunder Recovered.

Chief Thompson is on the track of a gang of thieves accused of the wholesale stealing of lead pipe and who are also believed to have been the parties who have been robbing hen houses the past few weeks.

Various reports of thefts of lead pipe have come to police headquarters the past few days and the chief has been quietly working on a clue which, he believes, will result in the arrest of several parties.

A message was received at the city hall this morning from a Northside resident, stating that a large quantity of pipe had been stolen from his premises and the chief immediately began an investigation. He had secured a clue at noon today which, it is expected, will lead to arrests by this evening.

Several of the local plumbers have reported the loss of lead pipe, and while most of the stolen property has been recovered by the officers, it has thus far been impossible to secure sufficient evidence against the thieves to occasion their arrest.

Chief Thompson has, however, been working diligently in an effort to get the needed evidence, and as a result of his efforts, it is expected that no less than five alleged thieves will be arrested.

SUBSTITUTE SOUGHT

JACK THE PEEPER IS A NUISANCE

Residents of Jefferson Street Propose to Go Gunning For Him.

THREE SUCCESSIVE NIGHTS

He Has Annoyed People, Causing Terror Among the Women of the Neighborhood—People Much Excited Over His Escapades.

Not satisfied with attending to his own business, a "Jack the Peeper" has made his appearance on Jefferson street for three nights in succession. If he is found by the parties who are now lying in wait for him he may be given the opportunity of writing an article for a newspaper upon the subject of "How It Feels to Be Shot."

A short, heavy set individual wearing a light overcoat has been annoying residents of Jefferson street on three successive evenings in such a manner that patience has ceased to be a virtue. Now he is being watched for. Several evenings ago some family washing was hanging in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. "Con" Kennedy on lower Jefferson street and it was stolen. This was one week ago last Saturday evening. Last Thursday evening an individual was seen walking about the Kennedy residence again. When he found that he was discovered he made a hasty exit and was not seen in that locality again that night. On Friday evening he was noticed about the home of John Owen, and after being discovered by a passerby peeping into the windows of this home he ran up Jefferson street and was soon lost from view.

The same person was seen Saturday evening about the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Witherow on Jefferson street. Mr. Witherow had gone up town and his wife was left at home alone. Frequently neighbors of this family come to their house, open the kitchen door without knocking, and when a knock was heard at the kitchen door of this home Saturday evening Mrs. Witherow said "Come in." The door was partially opened and the stranger peeped in, but that was all. He lost no time in making his escape and was not seen any more in that part of town that evening.

It is also said that this individual has on frequent occasions been seen prowling about the residence of Timothy Nolan, in Center alley. The residents of that part of town have been worked up to such a state of excitement that the intruder is likely to be met with a fusillade of bullets if encountered there again.

One resident of Jefferson street has said he recognized the "peeper" and believes him to be a man who resides out California hollow. The matter is now being investigated and police developments may be expected.

WANTS A MATCH

Lutz, of Beaver Falls, Desires to Wrestle With Conkle Here.

Conkle and Lutz had a go in East Palestine last May, in which Conkle got the decision through a fluke. Lutz is confident that he can beat the East Palestine man and is here for the purpose of arranging for the meeting.

The Beaver Falls athlete is well known in this city, having fought several battles before the East Liverpool Athletic club in the past few years. He has several of the local sporting men behind him and is apparently in earnest. A forfeit will be posted with some local man, and if it is covered within a reasonable time, the preliminaries can be arranged at once.

Rev. Charles W. Swan And Wife at Shreve Have East Liverpool Mementoes.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles W. Swan, who resided in the East End the greater part of last year, are now pleasantly located in the Presbyterian parsonage at Shreve. A very pleasant feature of their getting settled in their new home was the unpacking of a barrel containing a beautiful toilet set from one of the members of the Second Presbyterian church, of East Liverpool; also a large cask of dishes, a gift from members of the Second Presbyterian church in the East End. Mr. and Mrs. Swan will thus be continually reminded of their friends in East Liverpool.

The people of the Shreve Presbyterian church gave a very pleasant surprise and donation party at the parsonage recently. Mr. Swan has just closed a series of meetings which were largely attended.

Companion Shouted "Hands Up" and Albert Gilchrist Fell Bleeding.

TEETH AND JAW BROKEN

And a 32-Caliber Bullet Lodged In the Back of His Neck.

IT WAS ALL AN ACCIDENT

According to the Statement of the Boy Who Did the Shooting—Serious Result of Playing at Dangerous Games in a Shanty.

Unfortunate indeed was the accidental shooting of Albert Gilchrist, in a small shanty in the rear of 103 Lincoln avenue, yesterday, by a revolver of 32 caliber in the hands of James Myler, a son of John Myler, Sr., of Basil avenue.

Gilchrist is 15 years old and is a son of J. W. Gilchrist, an employee of the Croxall Pottery company, of Second street. He is a student in room 12 in the Central school building, and after school hours he was employed by the Yates Novelty company, in the Diamond. Last evening he went to a small shanty in Dewdrop alley, in which he and a number of other small boys had been in the habit of assembling after school and playing "Wild West" and other such daring games. In all probability no more such games will be played, for a week at least.

There were a number of youths in the shanty yesterday afternoon, sitting about the place on stools and on the floor. Young Gilchrist, according to a statement made by John Myler, had finished wiping a revolver and laid it on the floor near him. Myler picked up the revolver, shouting as he did so, "Hands up!" Scarcely were the words out of his mouth when the revolver accidentally exploded, the ball striking young Gilchrist in the right cheek, just at the base of the nose. The ball in its flight broke several teeth and a portion of the lower jaw bone and lodged in the back of the neck.

All the boys in the shanty were thoroughly frightened and with young Gilchrist ran into the alley. Gilchrist kept running and went to the office of Dr. Bailey, but he was not in. He was bleeding profusely and continued to run through the Diamond and to the office of Dr. W. A. Hobbs. He met the physician just as he was about to answer another call. Gilchrist was taken into the office and placed under the influence of chloroform and an attempt was made to locate the bullet. After probing for almost an hour without locating the ball, the boy was taken to the home of his parents on Wall street, where he passed a favorable night.

John Myler, who held the gun when it was discharged, said last evening: "I am not sure who owned the revolver, but I think it belonged to Gilchrist. It was an old one. A number of boys frequently met in the shanty after school, but this is the first time any mishap has occurred."

It was stated last evening that one of the boys who frequented the shanty went into a local hardware store earlier in the afternoon, asked to see a revolver and exhibited the revolver which played such an important part in the affair. Not being able to purchase a case the boy returned to the shanty and the shooting occurred shortly afterward.

THE RIVER RISING

Word of the Breaking Up of the Ice Above Is Soon Expected.

Word is expected this afternoon by Wharfmaster Gus Martindill relative to the breaking of the gorge in the Allegheny river. A small amount of ice is passing the city, coming from the Monongahela.

The Ohio river at this port is rising at the rate of about two inches an hour and a rise of over two feet has occurred since yesterday morning.

A continued rise is anticipated by local rivermen on account of moderating weather. If there is no heavy rain the ice is expected to go out quietly.

IT WAS ALL AN ACCIDENT

According to the Statement of the Boy Who Did the Shooting—Serious Result of Playing at Dangerous Games in a Shanty.

Unfortunate indeed was the accidental shooting of Albert Gilchrist, in a small shanty in the rear of 103 Lincoln avenue, yesterday, by a revolver of 32 caliber in the hands of James Myler, a son of John Myler, Sr., of Basil avenue.

Gilchrist is 15 years old and is a son of J. W. Gilchrist, an employee of the Croxall Pottery company, of Second street. He is a student in room 12 in the Central school building, and after school hours he was employed by the Yates Novelty company, in the Diamond. Last evening he went to a small shanty in Dewdrop alley, in which he and a number of other small boys had been in the habit of assembling after school and playing "Wild West" and other such daring games. In all probability no more such games will be played, for a week at least.

There were a number of youths in the shanty yesterday afternoon, sitting about the place on stools and on the floor. Young Gilchrist, according to a statement made by John Myler, had finished wiping a revolver and laid it on the floor near him. Myler picked up the revolver, shouting as he did so, "Hands up!" Scarcely were the words out of his mouth when the revolver accidentally exploded, the ball striking young Gilchrist in the right cheek, just at the base of the nose. The ball in its flight broke several teeth and a portion of the lower jaw bone and lodged in the back of the neck.

All the boys in the shanty were thoroughly frightened and with young Gilchrist ran into the alley. Gilchrist kept running and went to the office of Dr. Bailey, but he was not in. He was bleeding profusely and continued to run through the Diamond and to the office of Dr. W. A. Hobbs. He met the physician just as he was about to answer another call. Gilchrist was taken into the office and placed under the influence of chloroform and an attempt was made to locate the bullet. After probing for almost an hour without locating the ball, the boy was taken to the home of his parents on Wall street, where he passed a favorable night.

John Myler, who held the gun when it was discharged, said last evening: "I am not sure who owned the revolver, but I think it belonged to Gilchrist. It was an old one. A number of boys frequently met in the shanty after school, but this is the first time any mishap has occurred."

It was stated last evening that one of the boys who frequented the shanty went into a local hardware store earlier in the afternoon, asked to see revolver cases and exhibited the revolver which played such an important part in the affair. Not being able to purchase a case the boy returned to the shanty and the shooting occurred shortly afterward.

THE RIVER RISING

Word of the Breaking Up of the Ice Above is Soon Expected.

Word is expected this afternoon by Wharfmaster Gus Martindill relative to the breaking of the gorge in the Allegheny river. A small amount of ice is passing the city, coming from the Monongahela.

The Ohio river at this port is rising at the rate of about two inches an hour and a rise of over two feet has occurred since yesterday morning.

A continued rise is anticipated by local rivermen on account of moderating weather. If there is no heavy rain the ice is expected to go out quietly.

POTTERS OFFER A PROTEST AGAINST PROPOSED TAXES

East Liverpool Delegation In Columbus Confering With Legislators.

BURDEN OF THE COMPLAINT

Is That the Proposed Legislation Is Unfair to Their Interest.

THE FARMERS ARE HEARD FROM

In Numerous Petitions Against Any Change in the Game Law—Labor Measures And Other Bills Now Under Consideration.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, February 25. — Messrs. W. L. Smith, of the D. E. McNicol Pottery company; H. N. Harker, of the Harker Pottery company, and J. J. Purinton, of the United States Pottery company, acting as the representatives of the potting interests of East Liverpool and Wellsville, arrived here yesterday to protest against the passage of the Willis administration bill, which seeks to impose a tax of one-tenth of 1 per cent on the capital stock of Ohio corporations.

The gentlemen met the members of the Columbiana county delegation and made known to them the wishes of the interests they represented. They also met a number of other influential members of the legislature, with whom they discussed the bill. Senator Connell and Representatives Buell and Crist went over the situation carefully with the East Liverpool gentlemen and each one assured them that their action would be in accordance with the interests of their constituents. This is tantamount to a promise not to support the bill in its present form.

An avalanche of protests against the Willis bill from various places in Columbiana county poured in on Monday, most of them from East Liverpool, Salem and Wellsville. The burden of the complaint of the East Liverpool delegation was that the bill was an unfair discrimination against incorporated companies in favor of partnerships and individuals, and that it was class legislation. They made it plain that the East Liverpool manufacturers were quite willing to pay their proportion of the taxes, but were strongly opposed to standing for more than their share. Messrs. Smith, Harker and Purinton returned home at midnight.

Mr. Crist occupied the floor of the house for some time yesterday afternoon. He introduced petitions galore from the farmers of Columbiana county, who want no change in the game law. He also offered a petition with 40 signatures opposing the abandonment of the canal system. The Crist bill authorizing the residents of St. Clair township to improve the Calcutta road from Calcutta south to Liverpool township will probably go on the house calendar this week.

A measure which will have the active support of labor unions was one introduced on Monday afternoon by Mr. Kinney, of Cuyahoga county, amending the present lien laws so that in all cases claims of laborers and mechanics shall have preference over all other claims. The same interests which will support this bill will fight another introduced by Senator Wirt, of Youngstown, on Monday afternoon, which seeks to give the governor authority to appoint special policemen for service at plants of corporations. This bill was introduced at the behest of a number of large corporations, who would avail themselves of its provisions in case of a strike or other trouble at their plants.

Messrs. Buell and Crist, it is known positively, will vote for the Beal local option bill, which is scheduled to come up in the house on Wednesday. The state liquor league has no hope of defeating the bill in the house. In fact, they doubt very much whether they can prevent its passage in the senate, and from the present outlook the chances of the measure becoming a law seem favorable.

THIEVES WORKING WITH DILIGENCE

ARRESTS ARE TO FOLLOW

Chief Thompson on the Track of Guilty Parties—Plumbers And Others Have Been the Victims of the Crooks—Plunder Recovered.

Chief Thompson is on the track of a gang of thieves accused of the wholesale stealing of lead pipe and who are also believed to have been the parties who have been robbing hen houses the past few weeks.

Various reports of thefts of lead pipe have come to police headquarters the past few days and the chief has been quietly working on a clue which, he believes, will result in the arrest of several parties.

A message was received at the city hall this morning from a Northside resident, stating that a large quantity of pipe had been stolen from his premises and the chief immediately began an investigation. He had secured a clue at noon today which, it is expected, will lead to arrests by this evening.

Several of the local plumbers have reported the loss of lead pipe, and while most of the stolen property has been recovered by the officers, it has thus far been impossible to secure sufficient evidence against the thieves to occasion their arrest.

Chief Thompson has, however, been working diligently in an effort to get the needed evidence, and as a result of his efforts, it is expected that no less than five alleged thieves will be arrested.

JACK THE PEEPER IS A NUISANCE

Residents of Jefferson Street Propose to Go Gunning For Him.

THREE SUCCESSIVE NIGHTS

He Has Annoyed People, Causing Terror Among the Women of the Neighborhood—People Much Excited Over His Escapades.

Not satisfied with attending to his own business, a "Jack the Peeper" has made his appearance on Jefferson street for three nights in succession. If he is found by the parties who are now lying in wait for him he may be given the opportunity of writing an article for a newspaper upon the subject of "How It Feels to Be Shot."

A short, heavy set individual wearing a light overcoat has been annoying residents of Jefferson street on three successive evenings in such a manner that patience has ceased to be a virtue. Now he is being watched for. Several evenings ago some family washing was hanging in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. "Con" Kennedy on lower Jefferson street and it was stolen. This was one week ago last Saturday evening. Last Thursday evening an individual was seen walking about the Kennedy residence again. When he found that he was discovered he made a hasty exit and was not seen in that locality again that night. On Friday evening he was noticed about the home of John Owen, and after being discovered by a passerby peeping into the windows of this home he ran up Jefferson street and was soon lost from view.

The same person was seen Saturday evening about the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Witherow on Jefferson street. Mr. Witherow had gone up town and his wife was left at home alone. Frequently neighbors of this family come to their house, open the kitchen door without knocking, and when a knock was heard at the kitchen door of this home Saturday evening Mrs. Witherow said "Come in." The door was partially opened and the stranger peeped in, but that was all. He lost no time in making his escape and was not seen any more in that part of town that evening.

It is also said that this individual has on frequent occasions been seen prowling about the residence of Timothy Nolan, in Center alley. The residents of that part of town have been worked up to such a state of excitement that the intruder is likely to be met with a fusillade of bullets if encountered there again.

One resident of Jefferson street has said he recognized the "peeper" and believes him to be a man who resides out California hollow. The matter is now being investigated and police developments may be expected.

WANTS A MATCH

Lutz, of Beaver Falls, Desires to Wrestle With Conkle Here.

Lawrence Lutz, the all-around athlete of Beaver Falls, has been in the city since yesterday and hopes to be successful in making a match with Charles Conkle, of East Palestine, for a wrestling bout to be held in this city.

Conkle and Lutz had a go in East Palestine last May, in which Conkle got the decision through a fluke. Lutz is confident that he can beat the East Palestine man and is here for the purpose of arranging for the meeting.

The Beaver Falls athlete is well known in this city, having fought several battles before the East Liverpool Athletic club in the past few years. He has several of the local sporting men behind him and is apparently in earnest. A forfeit will be posted with some local man, and if it is covered within a reasonable time, the preliminaries can be arranged at once.

PLEASANTLY LOCATED

Rev. Charles W. Swan And Wife at Shreve Have East Liverpool Mementoes.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles W. Swan, who resided in the East End the greater part of last year, are now pleasantly located in the Presbyterian parsonage at Shreve. A very pleasant feature of their getting settled in their new home was the unpacking of a barrel containing a beautiful toilet set from one of the members of the Second Presbyterian church, of East Liverpool; also a large cask of dishes, a gift from members of the Second Presbyterian church in the East End. Mr. and Mrs. Swan will thus be continually reminded of their friends in East Liverpool.

The people of the Shreve Presbyterian church gave a very pleasant surprise and donation party at the parsonage recently. Mr. Swan has just closed a series of meetings which were largely attended.

EAST END
SIX-MINUTE SCHEDULE
ON STREET RAILWAY BETWEEN
EAST END AND DIAMOND.
Additional Improvements on the Line
Will Make the Change Possible Soon.

Desiring to further accommodate its patrons in the East End and others who reside in the city proper and are employed in the East End, the officials of the East Liverpool Railway company have decided to lessen the time of cars between the Diamond and the East End loop.

The announcement was made this morning by Mr. Healy that a six-minute schedule would be put in effect within a short time, and as soon as the weather permitted additional switches would be placed between the East End and Diamond. One of these switches will be located in the vicinity of the Laughlin pottery or thereabouts, while the other will be located between the power house and Mulberry street, probably at a point just east of the Ralston crossing trestle. Of course there will not be a six-minute schedule on this part of the line all day, the extra cars being placed on the road during the busy hours, both morning and evening.

It was the intention of the company to make this improvement in the service last fall, but as the power failed the change could not be made. After the new schedule is started there will be no double headers operated on the road, as was the case last summer. The new switches that will be laid have been delivered at the power house, and as soon as the weather moderates they will be laid. There will be no change in the schedule between this city and Wellsville, a 12-minute schedule continuing in force.

Everything is in readiness to complete the extension of this road to Smith's Ferry, the cold weather holding back this improvement. All the rails and ties for this extension have been delivered and it is presumed that work on the extension will commence early in April and that cars will be running to the Ferry not later than June.

FUNERAL OF O. P. CANTON

Yesterday morning another special car was sent to the East End in which the remains of the late Oliver P. Canton were placed, and with the relatives and immediate friends of the family started for Wellsville, whence the funeral party left for Weston, Lewis county, W. Va., where interment was made today, this being the home of the deceased before he came to the East End.

FIFTH WARD VOTERS

PLAIN TALK TO THEM FROM
COUNCILMAN R. J. MARSHALL.

His Motto is to Take Good Care of the Ward's Interests, Regardless of Those Who Object.

To the Voters of the Fifth Ward.

Gentlemen—I desire to call your attention to the fact that the saloon-keepers, more particularly the ones who run dives and gambling places, and also the street railway company, have decided that I am an obnoxious councilman to their interests, and therefore that I must be defeated at any cost. Hence the withdrawal of Mautz and the bespeaking of his support for one of my opponents whom the two forces have centered on.

My crime against the street railway company has been to insist on their giving decent service to their patrons; to insist on their running the cars over the Klondike extension and the 12-minute schedule. I have always been a friend of the boys on the line when they asked for a square deal at the hands of the company. In fact, as George Anderson says: "He has made our company spend hundreds of dollars they wouldn't have had to spend if it had not been for him, and we are going to beat him."

With all that we are not getting the service we should have, and I promise to keep on kicking until we do providing you again repose confidence in me.

My crime against the saloon—or, more particularly, the dive-keeper—is familiar to all and was the drafting of the screen ordinances which council passed.

Now, gentlemen, from such a source and with the above named "crimes" to be avenged, you can look for all sorts of tales. But, let me tell you it will not be for the benefit of the Fifth ward that they will be told, but to get rid of a councilman who insists, first, on common decency, and second, that the street railway company shall live up to its franchise.

I, therefore, ask you to be on the alert, those of you, who wish the East End to go forward. And if you choose to repose confidence in me again, I will do in the future as I have done in the past—take good care of the Fifth ward. There are many, many things that we need, and, depend upon it, I know what they are.

Yours,
R. J. MARSHALL.

NO IMPORTANT MOVEMENT,

Except in a Few Stocks of Smaller
Railroads, in Stock Market,
Monday.

New York, Feb. 25.—The stock market sank back into the professional traders' hands Monday and there was no important movement except in a few stocks of smaller railroads not allied to any of the great systems and in some minor industrial. The declines established for American stocks in London since the close here on Friday afternoon had to be faced at the opening. This caused a lower level at first than on last Friday, but prices were at no time down to the London parity, and they soon began to recover, in spite of the selling on arbitrage on London account at the advance. The confidence that the supreme court would refuse jurisdiction in Minnesota's suit against the Northern Securities company, which has been firmly held in Wall street for three weeks, was unimpaired Monday morning, and the traders did some of their buying on that basis. The announcement of the decision by the court failed to attract any outside demand and the efforts of the traders to take their profits caused a reaction in the market and an easy closing. The decision of the administration to push the case against the Northern Securities company deprived the other suit of much of its importance, but the fact remains that one possible course of procedure against the company is closed by this decision, and a step thus achieved toward the establishment of the company's status. It is generally felt that all possible courses of procedure will have to be met in the same way. Amalgamated Copper was affected by the reported sale to it of a mine and the removal of threatened litigation. Colorado and Southern was heavily bought, with an advance of over a point on reports of a transfer of control. An upward movement of a number of low priced minor railroad stocks had no other apparent cause than sympathy with this movement in Colorado and Southern. Tennessee Coal was a feature at an extreme advance of 3/4 on rumors of a resumption of dividends. Dealings in Southern Pacific continued large, but the movement in the stock was small.

The bond market showed some degree of firmness, but business was not large, except in the Wabash debenture Bs. Total sales, par value, $3,490,000. U. S. 3s, coupon, declined 1/4 and the regulars advanced 1/4 per cent on the last call.

Travelers to California

Naturally desire to see the grandest and most impressive scenery en route. This you will do by selecting the Denver & Rio Grande and Rio Grande Western, "The Scenic Line of the World," and "The Great Salt Lake Route," in one or both directions, as this line has two separate routes across the Rocky mountains between Denver and Ogden. Tickets reading via this route are available either via its main line through the Royal George, Leadville, over Tennessee Pass, through the Canon of the Grand river and Glenwood Springs, or via the line over Marshall Pass and through the Black Canon of the Gunnison, thus enabling the traveler to use one of the above routes going and the other returning. Three splendidly equipped fast trains are operated to and from the Pacific coast, which carry through standard sleepers daily between Chicago, St. Louis, Denver and San Francisco. Dining cars (service a la carte) on all through trains. If you contemplate such a trip, let us send you beautifully illustrated pamphlets, free. S. K. Hooper, G. P. & T. A., Denver, Col. 7-tf-3-tf

HOW TO BE SUCCESSFUL.

Experiences of Some of Our Wealthiest Men—Good Health
the Keynote.

Success does not follow ill health; on the contrary, it takes good health to make one successful. A good appetite, ability to sleep soundly all night long, and arise feeling rested and refreshed, with a body that has no pains or aches, and a clear brain, full of vim, ideas and insight into business, is what makes success. The Vanderbilts, Goulds, Astors, Havemeyers, and a long list of others that we could name, attribute their wealth and success in business to long hours and hard work, which were made possible by good health. Bad health is the cause of more failures in business than anything else. "Blood Wine" keeps the health good. It cleanses every particle of blood that flows through your veins. It abstracts the impurities and germs, forces them out of the body, and leaves only the pure, rich blood, which feeds the weakened tissues, and keeps one in good health. "Blood Wine" will give you a clear brain, so that you can think, reason, plan, and succeed. It enables you to grasp a situation quickly, to understand clearly. It takes every ache and pain out of your system, and transforms every organ of your body to its normal healthy condition. Blood Wine contains no wine or opiates, simply medicines of wonderful curative characteristics that never disappoint.

In the business world "Blood Wine" is a great favorite with both men and women. Storekeepers, clerks, stenographers, bookkeepers, lawyers, clergymen, and all requiring a powerful agent to clear the brain, and aid them in business, take it.

Mrs. Annie Morgan of Waterville, Me., says: "I think it is my duty to let you know what benefit I have derived from taking your 'Blood Wine.' I have taken one bottle and a half, and feel wonderfully better. My appetite is improved; I do not suffer nearly so much, for I was all run down and felt tired all the time, and my brain seemed clouded. Your 'Blood Wine' has benefited me so much that I feel grateful to have found it, and I can heartily recommend it to any one who is suffering from loss of appetite, nervousness, and all trouble arising from poor digestion, overwork, and a run-down condition in general." "Blood Wine" costs fifty cents a bottle, but you can sample it free of charge at Will Reed's and Hodson's drug-stores.

EAST END
SIX-MINUTE SCHEDULE
ON STREET RAILWAY BETWEEN
EAST END AND DIAMOND.
Additional Improvements on the Line
Will Make the Change Possible Soon.

Desiring to further accommodate its patrons in the East End and others who reside in the city proper and are employed in the East End, the officials of the East Liverpool Railway company have decided to lessen the time of cars between the Diamond and the East End loop.

The announcement was made this morning by Mr. Healy that a six-minute schedule would be put in effect within a short time, and as soon as the weather permitted additional switches would be placed between the East End and Diamond. One of these switches will be located in the vicinity of the Laughlin pottery or thereabouts, while the other will be located between the power house and Mulberry street, probably at a point just east of the Ralston crossing trestle. Of course there will not be a six-minute schedule on this part of the line all day, the extra cars being placed on the road during the busy hours, both morning and evening.

It was the intention of the company to make this improvement in the service last fall, but as the power failed the change could not be made. After the new schedule is started there will be no double headers operated on the road, as was the case last summer. The new switches that will be laid have been delivered at the power house, and as soon as the weather moderates they will be laid. There will be no change in the schedule between this city and Wellsville, a 12-minute schedule continuing in force.

Everything is in readiness to complete the extension of this road to Smith's Ferry, the cold weather holding back this improvement. All the rails and ties for this extension have been delivered and it is presumed that work on the extension will commence early in April and that cars will be running to the Ferry not later than June.

FUNERAL OF O. P. CANTON

Man Killed on the Street Railway
Buried in West Virginia
Today.

A special car of the East Liverpool Railway company on Saturday evening was waiting at the East End station to take Miss Marie Canton, of Pittsburgh, to the home of her father in the Klondike upon the arrival of 41 from Pittsburgh.

Yesterday morning another special car was sent to the East End in which the remains of the late Oliver P. Canton were placed, and with the relatives and immediate friends of the family started for Wellsville, whence the funeral party left for Weston, Lewis county, W. Va., where interment was made today, this being the home of the deceased before he came to the East End.

PHENOMENAL SUCCESS

There were 14 persons at the altar and 10 conversions were reported. During the present month over 30 persons have united with the church as a result of these meetings.

Rev. George W. Orcutt said this morning that it could not be told when the meetings would close.

Motorman Henry Moore, who has been confined to his home on Fifth street for several weeks, is recovering rapidly.

Another Good Meeting.

The meeting at the Second Presbyterian church last evening was well attended. Rev. J. R. Hosack preached a powerful and interesting sermon, and the music was fine. Two new members were taken into the church. Services will again be conducted this evening by Rev. Mr. Hosack.

FIFTH WARD VOTERS

PLAIN TALK TO THEM FROM
COUNCILMAN R. J. MARSHALL.

His Motto is to Take Good Care of the Ward's Interests, Regardless
of Those Who Object.

To the Voters of the Fifth Ward.

Gentlemen—I desire to call your attention to the fact that the saloon-keepers, more particularly the ones who run dives and gambling places, and also the street railway company, have decided that I am an obnoxious councilman to their interests, and therefore that I must be defeated at any cost. Hence the withdrawal of Mautz and the bespeaking of his support for one of my opponents whom the two forces have centered on.

My crime against the street railway company has been to insist on their giving decent service to their patrons; to insist on their running the cars over the Klondike extension and the 12-minute schedule. I have always been a friend of the boys on the line when they asked for a square deal at the hands of the company. In fact, as George Anderson says: "He has made our company spend hundreds of dollars they wouldn't have had to spend if it had not been for him, and we are going to beat him."

With all that we are not getting the service we should have, and I promise to keep on kicking until we do providing you again repose confidence in me.

My crime against the dive-keeper—is familiar to all and was the drafting of the screen ordinances which council passed.

Now, gentlemen, from such a source and with the above named "crimes" to be avenged, you can look for all sorts of tales. But, let me tell you it will not be for the benefit of the Fifth ward that they will be told, but to get rid of a councilman who insists, first, on common decency, and second, that the street railway company shall live up to its franchise.

I, therefore, ask you to be on the alert, those of you who wish the East End to go forward. And if you choose to repose confidence in me again, I will do in the future as I have done in the past—take good care of the Fifth ward. There are many, many things that we need, and depend upon it, I know what they are.

Yours,
R. J. MARSHALL.

NO IMPORTANT MOVEMENT,

Except in a Few Stocks of Smaller
Railroads, in Stock Market,
Monday.

New York, Feb. 25.—The stock market sank back into the professional traders' hands Monday and there was no important movement except in a few stocks of smaller railroads not allied to any of the great systems and in some minor industrial. The declines established for American stocks in London since the close here on Friday afternoon had to be faced at the opening. This caused a lower level at first than on last Friday, but prices were at no time down to the London parity, and they soon began to recover, in spite of the selling on arbitrage on London account at the advance. The confidence that the supreme court would refuse jurisdiction in Minnesota's suit against the Northern Securities company, which has been firmly held in Wall street for three weeks, was unimpaired Monday morning, and the traders did some of their buying on that basis. The announcement of the decision by the court failed to attract any outside demand and the efforts of the traders to take their profits caused a reaction in the market and an easy closing. The decision of the administration to push the case against the Northern Securities company deprived the other suit of much of its importance, but the fact remains that one possible course of procedure against the company is closed by this decision, and a step thus achieved toward the establishment of the company's status. It is generally felt that all possible courses of procedure will have to be met in the same way. Amalgamated Copper was affected by the reported sale to it of a mine and the removal of threatened litigation. Colorado and Southern was heavily bought, with an advance of over a point on reports of a transfer of control. An upward movement of a number of low priced minor railroad stocks had no other apparent cause than sympathy with this movement in Colorado and Southern. Tennessee Coal was a feature at an extreme advance of 3/4 on rumors of a resumption of dividends. Dealings in Southern Pacific continued large, but the movement in the stock was small.

The bond market showed some degree of firmness, but business was not large, except in the Wabash debenture. Total sales, par value, $3,490,000. U. S. 3s, coupon, declined 1/4 and the regulars advanced 1/4 per cent on the last call.

WEATHER FORECAST.

SIX-MINUTE SCHEDULE

ON STREET RAILWAY BETWEEN EAST END AND DIAMOND.

Additional Improvements on the Line Will Make the Change Possible Soon.

Desiring to further accommodate its patrons in the East End and others who reside in the city proper and are employed in the East End, the officials of the East Liverpool Railway company have decided to lessen the time of cars between the Diamond and the East End loop.

The announcement was made this morning by Mr. Healy that a six-minute schedule would be put in effect within a short time, and as soon as the weather permitted additional switches would be placed between the East End and Diamond. One of these switches will be located in the vicinity of the Laughlin pottery or thereabouts, while the other will be located between the power house and Mulberry street, probably at a point just east of the Ralston crossing trestle. Of course there will not be a six-minute schedule on this part of the line all day, the extra cars being placed on the road during the busy hours, both morning and evening.

It was the intention of the company to make this improvement in the service last fall, but as the power failed the change could not be made. After the new schedule is started there will be no double headers operated on the road, as was the case last summer. The new switches that will be laid have been delivered at the power house, and as soon as the weather moderates they will be laid. There will be no change in the schedule between this city and Wellsville, a 12-minute schedule continuing in force.

Everything is in readiness to complete the extension of this road to Smith's Ferry, the cold weather holding back this improvement. All the rails and ties for this extension have been delivered and it is presumed that work on the extension will commence early in April and that cars will be running to the Ferry not later than June.

Canton were placed, and with the relatives and immediate friends of the family started for Wellsville, whence the funeral party left for Weston, Lewis county, W. Va., where interment was made today, this being the home of the deceased before he came to the East End.

FIFTH WARD VOTERS

PLAIN TALK TO THEM FROM COUNCILMAN R. J. MARSHALL.

His Motto is to Take Good Care of the Ward's Interests, Regardless of Those Who Object.

To the Voters of the Fifth Ward.

Gentlemen—I desire to call your attention to the fact that the saloon-keepers, more particularly the ones who run dives and gambling places, and also the street railway company, have decided that I am an obnoxious councilman to their interests, and therefore that I must be defeated at any cost. Hence the withdrawal of Mautz and the bespeaking of his support for one of my opponents whom the two forces have centered on.

My crime against the street railway company has been to insist on their giving decent service to their patrons; to insist on their running the cars over the Klondike extension and the 12-minute schedule. I have always been a friend of the boys on the line when they asked for a square deal at the hands of the company. In fact, as George Anderson says: "He has made our company spend hundreds of dollars they wouldn't have had to spend if it had not been for him, and we are going to beat him."

With all that we are not getting the service we should have, and I promise to keep on kicking until we do providing you again repose confidence in me.

My crime against the saloon—or, more particularly, the dive-keeper—is familiar to all and was the drafting of the screen ordinances which council passed.

Now, gentlemen, from such a source and with the above named "crimes" to be avenged, you can look for all sorts of tales. But, let me tell you it will not be for the benefit of the Fifth ward that they will be told, but to get rid of a councilman who insists, first, on common decency, and second, that the street railway company shall live up to its franchise.

I, therefore, ask you to be on the alert, those of you, who wish the East End to go forward. And if you choose to repose confidence in me again, I will do in the future as I have done in the past—take good care of the Fifth ward. There are many, many things that we need, and depend upon it, I know what they are.

Yours,
R. J. MARSHALL.

NO IMPORTANT MOVEMENT,

Except in a Few Stocks of Smaller Railroads, in Stock Market, Monday.

New York, Feb. 25.—The stock market sank back into the professional traders' hands Monday and there was no important movement except in a few stocks of smaller railroads not allied to any of the great systems and in some minor industrial. The declines established for American stocks in London since the close here on Friday afternoon had to be faced at the opening. This caused a lower level at first than on last Friday, but prices were at no time down to the London parity, and they soon began to recover, in spite of the selling on arbitrage on London account at the advance. The confidence that the supreme court would refuse jurisdiction in Minnesota's suit against the Northern Securities company, which has been firmly held in Wall street for three weeks, was unimpaired Monday morning, and the traders did some of their buying on that basis. The announcement of the decision by the court failed to attract any outside demand and the efforts of the traders to take their profits caused a reaction in the market and an easy closing. The decision of the administration to push the case against the Northern Securities company deprived the other suit of much of its importance, but the fact remains that one possible course of procedure against the company is closed by this decision, and a step thus achieved toward the establishment of the company's status. It is generally felt that all possible courses of procedure will have to be met in the same way. Amalgamated Copper was affected by the reported sale to it of a mine and the removal of threatened litigation. Colorado and Southern was heavily bought, with an advance of over a point on reports of a transfer of control. An upward movement of a number of low priced minor railroad stocks had no other apparent cause than sympathy with this movement in Colorado and Southern. Tennessee Coal was a feature at an extreme advance of 3/4 on rumors of a resumption of dividends. Dealings in Southern Pacific continued large, but the movement in the stock was small.

The bond market showed some degree of firmness, but business was not large, except in the Wabash debenture. Total sales, par value, $3,490,000. U. S. 3s, coupon, declined 1/4 and the regulars advanced 1/4 per cent on the last call.

HOW TO BE SUCCESSFUL.

Experiences of Some of Our Wealthiest Men—Good Health the Keynote.

Success does not follow ill health; on the contrary, it takes good health to make one successful. A good appetite, ability to sleep soundly all night long, and arise feeling rested and refreshed, with a body that has no pains or aches, and a clear brain, full of vim, ideas and insight into business, is what make success. The Vanderbilts, Goulds, Astors, Havemeyers, and a long list of others that we could name, attribute their wealth and success in business to long hours and hard work, which were made possible by good health. Bad health is the cause of more failures in business than anything else. "Blood Wine" keeps the health good. It cleanses every particle of blood that flows through your veins. It abstracts the impurities and germs, forces them out of the body, and leaves only the pure, rich blood, which feeds the weakened tissues, and keeps one in good health. "Blood Wine" will give you a clear brain, so that you can think, reason, plan, and succeed. It enables you to grasp a situation quickly, to understand clearly. It takes every ache and pain out of your system, and transforms every organ of your body to its normal healthy condition. Blood Wine contains no wine or opiates, simply medicines of wonderful curative characteristics that never disappoint.

In the business world "Blood Wine" is a great favorite with both men and women. Storekeepers, clerks, stenographers, bookkeepers, lawyers, clergymen, and all requiring a powerful agent to clear the brain, and aid them in business, take it.

Mrs. Annie Morgan of Waterville, Me., says: "I think it is my duty to let you know what benefit I have derived from taking your 'Blood Wine.' I have taken one bottle and a half, and feel wonderfully better. My appetite is improved; I do not suffer nearly so much, for I was all run down and felt tired all the time, and my brain seemed clouded. Your 'Blood Wine' has benefited me so much that I feel grateful to have found it, and I can heartily recommend it to any one who is suffering from loss of appetite, nervousness, and all trouble arising from poor digestion, overwork, and a run-down condition in general."

"Blood Wine" costs fifty cents a bottle, but you can sample it free of charge at Will Reed's and Hodson's drug-stores.

Diseases of Skin and Scalp eruptions, eczema, old sores, itching, dandruff, scalds, burns, quick relief in Piles. Clean and cooling. Vegetable antiseptic. 50 cts. Guaranteed.

If your druggist does not keep it, address SAGINE COMPANY, COLUMBUS, O.

THE YACHT LAUNCHED

Today Miss Roosevelt Cut Rope
Which Released the Em-

PRESIDENT AND PRINCE THERE.

Distinguished Assemblage Present.
Brilliant Dinner at White House
Last Night—Prince Visited Both
Houses of Congress Yesterday.

New York, Feb. 25.—The Meteor, the German emperor's yacht, was launched at 10 o'clock this morning. Miss Alice Roosevelt, daughter of the president, cutting the rope, which released the yacht, with a silver hatchet.

Prince Henry, President and Mrs. Roosevelt, and a distinguished assemblage were present.

Washington Feb. 25.—The dinner to Prince Henry by President Roosevelt, at the White House last night closed the honors bestowed on the royal visitor by official Washington yesterday.

During the dinner the president proposed the health of the German emperor and the German people, saying:

"We admire their great past and great present and we wish them all possible success in the future. May the bonds of friendship between the two people ever grow stronger."

The president also proposed the health of our guest, Prince Henry, of Prussia, in these words:

"In the name of the American people I greet you and extend you our warmest welcome and the assurance of our heartiest good will."

The name of Senator Martin, of Virginia, was originally on the list of those given out as guests at the dinner, but he declined the invitation.

Left For the Launching.

Following the toast of the president to the German emperor, Prince Henry arose and, addressing himself to the president, proposed a toast to himself and the people of the United States, accompanying it with an expression of good will and a hope for the continuation of friendly relations between the German and American nations. Then followed Mr. Roosevelt's toast to Prince Henry.

After the dinner the guests repaired to the parlors, where for an hour or more they remained in social conversation. The prince chatted freely with the company, many of whom he had met during the day. At 10:40 the party dispersed, the prince leaving directly for the railroad station, where his special train awaited him. A troop of cavalry and a squadron of mounted and bicycle policemen acted as escort to the station and saw him safely aboard the train, which left at midnight for New York city.

President Roosevelt and party left Washington shortly before midnight last night for New York to witness the launching today of the yacht Meteor, built for the emperor of Germany. Accompanying the president were Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Alice Roosevelt, Secretary Root, Mrs. Root, Miss Root, Secretary Hitchcock, Commander and Mrs. Cowles, Senators Lodge and Spooner, Representative Littauer, Dr. Pickrell, Secretary Loeb, Mr. Collin Studds and a stenographer. The president's train pulled out of the station a few minutes before the one occupied by the prince and his escort.

Prince Visited Both Houses.

The prince not only saw the houses of the American parliament at work yesterday, but in the senate he wit-

It causes pains in the side, palpitation, shortness of breath, smothering, dropsical swellings, sinking spells, and frequently ends all suffering in sudden death. Why tempt death when a cure is within easy reach?

Livingston the Hero Of Louisiana Purchase

By Congressman DE ALVA S. ALEXANDER

THE Louisiana Purchase exposition will bring into view the magnificent work of a magnificent New Yorker, Robert R. Livingston, the ambassador to Paris at the time the purchase was made. The proposition was made by Napoleon or his minister to Mr. Livingston, who at once grasped at the chance of making the purchase. WHEN HE REPORTED IT TO THOMAS JEFFERSON, MR. JEFFERSON REPLIED THAT WE HAD NO CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY TO MAKE THAT PURCHASE. Mr. Livingston, however, completed it, and then, while President Jefferson was sending out word to his friends in the United States senate that it was beyond our constitutional power to make the purchase and that they should look askance upon the proposition, Robert R. Livingston sent a confidential note to the president stating that unless the purchase was ratified at once Napoleon would change his mind.

And then President Jefferson wrote to his friends in the senate, saying, "Say nothing about the constitutionality of the purchase, but confirm the treaty." That is the story that will be brought out in golden letters from the Golden Gate to Maine, that this country may see that the man behind the throne, THE MAN WITH THE NERVE AND THE POWER TO MAKE THAT PURCHASE, WAS NOT THOMAS JEFFERSON, the strict constructionist of the constitution, but that it was Robert R. Livingston, one of the greatest and most noted of New York's famous statesmen. I do not wish to take from Jefferson's laurels, but I believe that the time has come when all America should recognize the fact that the man to whom we owe the honor and the debt and the gratitude of making that purchase was Robert R. Livingston of New York and not Thomas Jefferson of Virginia.

nessed one of those rare and intensely dramatic moments which come in that body occasionally at the conclusion of a great debate. The prince and his party, in carriages, escorted by a troop of cavalry, and flanked on either side by a bicycle platoon of police, arrived at the eastern entrance of the capitol at 4 o'clock, exactly on schedule time.

Prince Henry no longer wore the brilliant uniform and plumed chapeau in which he had appeared earlier in the day. He was attired in the simple dark blue fatigue uniform of the German admiral and wore the flat German naval cap of his rank. The members of his suite wore fatigue uniforms, and the German ambassador had exchanged his court dress for a conventional frock suit. In the matter of gold lace and braid, General Corbin and Admiral Evans, still in the splendor of full dress uniforms, far outshone the prince and his staff.

The party was met at the great bronze doors leading into the rotunda by a committee from the house, consisting of Mr. Hitt, of Illinois; Mr. Dinsmore, of Arkansas, and General Grosvenor, of Ohio, chairman of the committee having the arrangements for the prince's reception in charge. Brief cordial greetings having been exchanged, the prince and his party, under the protection of a half hundred police, were conveyed through solid walls of people packed in the rotunda and statutory hall to the room of Speaker Henderson, in the rear of the house lobby. Here the speaker, who was awaiting him, greeted the prince with a warm handshake as Mr. Hitt presented "his royal highness."

General Henderson invited the prince to be seated, while the German ambassador made the other introductions and then in a few words formally welcomed him. "Your royal highness," he said, turning to the prince, who instantly arose, "it gives me very sincere pleasure, in behalf of the United States house of representatives, to greet you with a cordial and heartfelt welcome, but it gives me all the greater pleasure, as you come representing in an eminent degree that friendly feeling which exists between your nation and ours, and representing also the cordial feeling of the illustrious head of the German empire. When you are ready to go from here, we have made suitable provision for your accommodation in the gallery, so that you can see the house of representatives in session. When you have remained there a length of time agreeable to you, a committee, consisting of Mr. Hitt, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs; Mr. Dinsmore, also of that committee, and General Grosvenor, chairman of the committee on arrangements, will consult your pleasure as to what further may be gratifying to you while at this end of the capitol."

Prince Thanked the Speaker.

The prince thanked the speaker for his courtesy, and without further ceremony the party proceeded to the gallery of the house, walking up the marble stairs instead of using the elevator. His appearance at the door of the gallery caused an enthusiastic demonstration. No sooner had his tall, graceful figure been framed in the doorway when a spontaneous outburst of applause swept the floor and gallery. The prince paused, smiled through his blonde beard, and acknowledged the greetings with a slight bow. Then advancing, with the German ambassador and Mr. Hitt on either side, he descended to the place reserved for him in the front row of the gallery. Instantly every eye was upon him. He seemed perfectly oblivious of the fact that he was on exhibition at close range. Mr. Gilbert, of Kentucky, was addressing the house at the time on the Philippine question, although the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill was under consideration. Prince Henry seemed interested, listening attentively for several minutes to what Mr. Gilbert had to say and appearing much pleased at the hearty applause which followed the statement of the Kentucky member that the "Anglo-Saxon and German races are one."

Prince Interested In Grow.

Mr. Williams, of Mississippi, and Mr. Wachter, of Maryland, exchanged a few remarks with the prince in German. Mr. Grow, of Pennsylvania, the venerable ex-speaker, was one of those in whom the prince showed a special interest, after he had been informed by Mr. Hitt that the Pennsylvanian had presided over the house 50 years ago. Just as the reception, which lasted scarcely more than 10 minutes, was concluded, the senate committee, consisting of Senators Culom, of Illinois; Lodge, of Massachusetts, and Morgan, of Alabama, appeared and after being presented escorted the prince and his party to the senate. He was escorted to the richly gilded chamber of the vice president, and there Senator Frye, of Maine, the president pro tem of the senate, greeted him and the members of his suite. No formal remarks were made on either side. The members of the prince's party were escorted by General Corbin to the diplomatic gallery, but Prince Henry and Ambassador Von Holleben were ushered directly into the senate chamber.

The youthful senator from Texas, Mr. Bailey, was hotly engaged with several of the older leaders on the Republican side over the right of the two senators from South Carolina, who are in contempt of the senate, to vote on the Philippine bill. The excitement at the moment was so great that even the entrance of a foreign prince, unwonted as it was, could hardly divert attention from the great debate which was in progress. Senator Frye, with the prince at his side, mounted the rostrum and invited him to be seated. The senators on the floor and the spectators in the galleries had arisen at his appearance, but there was no audible demonstration. He took a seat by the side of the president pro tem and Senator Frye resumed the gavel, which he had yielded to Senator Hoar, and debate proceeded.

Engrossed in Scene In Senate.

For fully 20 minutes the prince sat completely engrossed by the scene before him. At last Ambassador Von Holleben, who sat below him at the clerk's desk, suggested it was time to go, whereupon the prince thanked Senator Frye and arose. Senator Frye interrupted the senate with a rap of his gavel. The senators immediately stood up, while the people in the galleries craned their necks. Then as the prince ascended the steps and stood for an instant bowing his acknowledgments ere he took his departure the galleries broke into applause.

Later the prince and suite were driven away.

The prince and party reached Washington at 10:20 yesterday morning. Secretary Hay, Secretary Long, Assistant Secretary of State Pearce, who had immediate charge of the arrangements at the depot, and out Quad and two other attaches from the German embassy, met the train. Police, national guard and naval and army contingents were used in guarding the station, the route to be traversed and also as escort.

The prince and party were driven to the White House, where the prince called upon the president.

Later the president returned the call at the German embassy.

One of the most brilliant functions of the day was at 2 p. m., when Prince Henry received at the German embassy the members of the diplomatic corps, including the ambassadors and ministers, accompanied by their staffs of government, naval and civil attaches, all in full uniform. It was the same brilliant assemblage that is seen at the White House on New Year's day to give greetings to the president. Turks in red fez, Russians in tall shakos, Chinese in rich oriental silks. But yesterday there was added brilliancy in the showy uniforms of the imperial receiving party.

THE YACHT LAUNCHED

Today Miss Roosevelt Cut Rope Which Released the Emperor's New Vessel.

PRESIDENT AND PRINCE THERE.

Distinguished Assemblage Present.
Brilliant Dinner at White House
Last Night—Prince Visited Both Houses of Congress Yesterday.

New York, Feb. 25.—The Meteor, the German emperor's yacht, was launched at 10 o'clock this morning. Miss Alice Roosevelt, daughter of the president, cutting the rope, which released the yacht, with a silver hatchet.

Prince Henry, President and Mrs. Roosevelt, and a distinguished assemblage were present.

Washington Feb. 25.—The dinner to Prince Henry by President Roosevelt, at the White House last night closed the honors bestowed on the royal visitor by official Washington yesterday.

During the dinner the president proposed the health of the German emperor and the German people, saying:

"We admire their great past and great present and we wish them all possible success in the future. May the bonds of friendship between the two people ever grow stronger."

The president also proposed the health of our guest, Prince Henry, of Prussia, in these words:

"In the name of the American people I greet you and extend you our warmest welcome and the assurance of our heartiest good will."

The name of Senator Martin, of Virginia, was originally on the list of those given out as guests at the dinner, but he declined the invitation.

Left For the Launching.

Following the toast of the president to the German emperor, Prince Henry arose and, addressing himself to the president, proposed a toast to himself and the people of the United States, accompanying it with an expression of good will and a hope for the continuation of friendly relations between the German and American nations. Then followed Mr. Roosevelt's toast to Prince Henry.

After the dinner the guests repaired to the parlors, where for an hour or more they remained in social conversation. The prince chatted freely with the company, many of whom he had met during the day. At 10:40 the party dispersed, the Prince leaving directly for the railroad station, where his special train awaited him. A troop of cavalry and a squadron of mounted and bicycle policemen acted as escort to the station and saw him safely aboard the train, which left at midnight for New York city.

President Roosevelt and party left Washington shortly before midnight last night for New York to witness the launching today of the yacht Meteor, built for the emperor of Germany. Accompanying the president were Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Alice Roosevelt, Secretary Root, Mrs. Root, Miss Root, Secretary Hitchcock, Commander and Mrs. Cowles, Senators Lodge and Spooner, Representative Littauer, Dr. Pickrell, Secretary Loeb, Mr. Collin Studds and a stenographer. The president's train pulled out of the station a few minutes before the one occupied by the prince and his escort.

Prince Visited Both Houses.

The prince not only saw the houses of the American parliament at work yesterday, but in the senate he witnessed one of those rare and intensely dramatic moments which come in that body occasionally at the conclusion of a great debate.

Heart Disease

retards the circulation, weakens the stomach, deranges digestion, pollutes the blood, destroys the nervous force and saps the vitality of the whole system. It causes pains in the side, palpitation, shortness of breath, smothering, dropsical swellings, sinking spells, and frequently ends all suffering in sudden death. Why tempt death when a cure is within easy reach?

"My head would get so hot it seemed to be burning up, while my feet were like ice. My limbs would swell and get numb. I had to sit in a chair day and night for months and my heart throbbed and pained me terribly. After using three bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I could do a good day's work."

Livingston the Hero Of Louisiana Purchase

By Congressman DE ALVA S. ALEXANDER

THE Louisiana Purchase exposition will bring into view the magnificent work of a magnificent New Yorker, Robert R. Livingston, the ambassador to Paris at the time the purchase was made. The proposition was made by Napoleon or his minister to Mr. Livingston, who at once grasped at the chance of making the purchase. WHEN HE REPORTED IT TO THOMAS JEFFERSON, MR. JEFFERSON REPLIED THAT WE HAD NO CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY TO MAKE THAT PURCHASE. Mr. Livingston, however, completed it, and then, while President Jefferson was sending out word to his friends in the United States senate that it was beyond our constitutional power to make the purchase and that they should look askance upon the proposition, Robert R. Livingston sent a confidential note to the president stating that unless the purchase was ratified at once Napoleon would change his mind.

And then President Jefferson wrote to his friends in the senate, saying, "Say nothing about the constitutionality of the purchase, but confirm the treaty." That is the story that will be brought out in golden letters from the Golden Gate to Maine, that this country may see that the man behind the throne, THE MAN WITH THE NERVE AND THE POWER TO MAKE THAT PURCHASE, WAS NOT THOMAS JEFFERSON, the strict constructionist of the constitution, but that it was Robert R. Livingston, one of the greatest and most noted of New York's famous statesmen. I do not wish to take from Jefferson's laurels, but I believe that the time has come when all America should recognize the fact that the man to whom we owe the honor and the debt and the gratitude of making that purchase was Robert R. Livingston of New York and not Thomas Jefferson of Virginia.

nessed one of those rare and intensely dramatic moments which come in that body occasionally at the conclusion of a great debate. The prince and his party, in carriages, escorted by a troop of cavalry, and flanked on either side by a bicycle platoon of police, arrived at the eastern entrance of the capitol at 4 o'clock, exactly on schedule time. Prince Henry no longer wore the brilliant uniform and plumed chapeau in which he had appeared earlier in the day. He was attired in the simple dark blue fatigue uniform of the German admiral and wore the flat German naval cap of his rank. The members of his suite wore fatigue uniforms, and the German ambassador had exchanged his court dress for a conventional frock suit. In the matter of gold lace and braid, General Corbin and Admiral Evans, still in the splendor of full dress uniforms, far outshone the prince and his staff. The party was met at the great bronze doors leading into the rotunda by a committee from the house, consisting of Mr. Hitt, of Illinois; Mr. Dinsmore, of Arkansas, and General Grosvenor, of Ohio, chairman of the committee having the arrangements for the prince's reception in charge. Brief cordial greetings having been exchanged, the prince and his party, under the protection of a half hundred dred police, were conveyed through solid walls of people packed in the rotunda and statutory hall to the room of Speaker Henderson, in the rear of the house lobby. Here the speaker, who was awaiting him, greeted the prince with a warm handshake as Mr. Hitt presented "his royal highness."

General Henderson invited the prince to be seated, while the German ambassador made the other introductions and then in a few words formally welcomed him.

"Your royal highness," he said, turning to the prince, who instantly arose, "it gives me very sincere pleasure, in behalf of the United States house of representatives, to greet you with a cordial and heartfelt welcome, but it gives me all the greater pleasure, as you come representing in an eminent degree that friendly feeling which exists between your nation and ours, and representing also the cordial feeling of the illustrious head of the German empire. When you are ready to go from here, we have made suitable provision for your accommodation in the gallery, so that you can see the house of representatives in session. When you have remained there a length of time agreeable to you, a committee, consisting of Mr. Hitt, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs; Mr. Dinsmore, also of that committee, and General Grosvenor, chairman of the committee on arrangements, will consult your pleasure as to what further may be gratifying to you while at this end of the capitol."

Prince Thanked the Speaker.

The prince thanked the speaker for his courtesy, and without further ceremony the party proceeded to the gallery of the house, walking up the marble stairs instead of using the elevator. His appearance at the door of the gallery caused an enthusiastic demonstration. No sooner had his tall, graceful figure been framed in the doorway when a spontaneous outburst of applause swept the floor and gallery. The prince paused, smiled through his blonde beard, and acknowledged the greetings with a slight bow. Then advancing with the German ambassador and Mr. Hitt on either side, he descended to the place reserved for him in the front row of the gallery. Instantly every eye was upon him. He seemed perfectly oblivious of the fact that he was on exhibition at close range. Mr. Gilbert, of Kentucky, was addressing the house at the time on the Philippine question, although the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill was under consideration. Prince Henry seemed interested, listening attentively for several minutes to what Mr. Gilbert had to say and appearing much pleased at the hearty applause which followed the statement of the Kentucky member that the "Anglo-Saxon and German races are one."

Mr. Sims, of Tennessee, secured the floor after Mr. Gilbert had concluded.

The party remained about 10 minutes in the gallery and then descended to the ways and means committee room, where a reception was held. The demonstration as the prince left the gallery was even more enthusiastic than when he entered. A number of members rose to their feet and cheered. The house at once adjourned to afford the members an opportunity to meet the royal visitor personally. The reception was very informal. The members formed in line and were presented by Mr. Hitt.

Prince Interested in Grow.

Mr. Williams, of Mississippi, and Mr. Wachter, of Maryland, exchanged a few remarks with the prince in German. Mr. Grow, of Pennsylvania, the venerable ex-speaker, was one of those in whom the prince showed a special interest, after he had been informed by Mr. Hitt that the Pennsylvanian had presided over the house 50 years ago. Just as the reception, which lasted scarcely more than 10 minutes, was concluded, the senate committee, consisting of Senators Cullom, of Illinois; Lodge, of Massachusetts, and Morgan, of Alabama, appeared and after being presented escorted the prince and his party to the senate. He was escorted to the richly gilded chamber of the vice president, and there Senator Frye, of Maine, the president pro tem of the senate, greeted him and the members of his suite. No formal remarks were made on either side. The members of the prince's party were escorted by General Corbin to the diplomatic gallery, but Prince Henry and Ambassador Von Holleben were ushered directly into the senate chamber.

The youthful senator from Texas, Mr. Bailey, was hotly engaged with several of the older leaders on the Republican side over the right of the two senators from South Carolina, who are in contempt of the senate, to vote on the Philippine bill. The excitement at the moment was so great that even the entrance of a foreign prince, unwelcome as it was, could hardly divert attention from the great debate which was in progress. Senator Frye, with the prince at his side, mounted the rostrum and invited him to be seated. The senators on the floor and the spectators in the galleries had arisen at his appearance, but there was no audible demonstration. He took a seat by the side of the president pro tem and Senator Frye resumed the gavel, which he had yielded to Senator Hoar, and debate proceeded.

Engrossed in Scene in Senate.

For fully 20 minutes the prince sat completely engrossed by the scene before him. At last Ambassador Von Holleben, who sat below him at the clerk's desk, suggested it was time to go, whereupon the prince thanked Senator Frye and arose. Senator Frye interrupted the senate with a rap of his gavel. The senators immediately stood up, while the people in the galleries craned their necks. Then as the prince ascended the steps and stood for an instant bowing his acknowledgments ere he took his departure the galleries broke into applause.

Later the prince and suite were driven away.

The prince and party reached Washington at 10:20 yesterday morning. Secretary Hay, Secretary Long, Assistant Secretary of State Pearce, who had immediate charge of the arrangements at the depot, and out Quadri and two other attaches from the German embassy, met the train. Police, national guard and naval and army contingents were used in guarding the station, the route to be traversed and also as escort.

The prince and party were driven to the White House, where the prince called upon the president.

Later the president returned the call at the German embassy.

One of the most brilliant functions of the day was at 2 p. m., when Prince Henry received at the German embassy the members of the diplomatic corps, including the ambassadors and ministers, accompanied by their staffs of government, naval and civil attaches, all in full uniform. It was the same brilliant assemblage that is seen at the White House on New Year's day to give greetings to the president. Turks in red fez, Russians in tall shakos, Chinese in rich oriental silks. But yesterday there was added brilliancy in the showy uniforms of the imperial receiving party.

retards the circulation, weakens the stomach, deranges digestion, pollutes the blood, destroys the nervous force and saps the vitality of the whole system. Why tempt death when a cure is within easy reach?

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1902.

Rev. Dr. Steiner, of Sandusky, in order to learn more about the every-day life of the people of his town, put in a short time as a newspaper reporter. He gathered some news and some ideas also. One of the latter he thus expressed: "All the people who cry about the unreliability of the newspaper would howl still more if the newspaper printed the truth." By this he probably means that a decided sensation would be caused should any newspaper attempt to tell all it knows to be true. This would certainly be the case. The greatest desire of every newspaper is to print correct information. Necessarily the public is called upon to supply much of the data. That it is not always accurate is not surprising. Let a dozen people, eye-witnesses to a tragedy or a fire, tell their story in court, and see how they will differ as to details, though every one may be doing his best to tell the exact truth. The man who purposely misstates things in order to deceive a reporter is sometimes encountered, but the newspaper men steer clear of him as far as possible. In Pennsylvania they have a law to punish him, and it is a just and proper law. As for stirring up trouble, which the newspapers are sometimes accused of doing, hundreds of items are suppressed to avoid that very result; hundreds of what the newspaper men style "good stories" never see the light of day, for the simple reason that it is better for all concerned that they should never be printed. Newspapers could sever family ties, ruin great men's reputations and work no end of harm to great interests by telling all they know. But they don't do it, because newspaper men have consciences and because they believe it is their duty to preserve and build up, rather than to tear down and destroy.

The National Civic Federation, one object of which is to prevent strikes, has received the cordial endorsement of numerous labor organizations. President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, says that while it will not avert all strikes, it will reduce them materially, and minimize the possibility of long drawn-out struggles, in which vast sums of money are lost both to the employers and their men.

The East End is fast gaining recognition as one of the busiest sections of the city. The East Liverpool Railway company has now decided that the people of this section are entitled to cars more frequently. The change is one that will be appreciated.

The senate will have to make a precedent in the matter of punishing Tillman and McLaurin. The best way to settle the matter would be to make it impossible for them to repeat the offense.

A revolver as a plaything came frightfully near causing the death of an East Liverpool boy yesterday. Too vigorous measures cannot be taken to check the weapon-carrying habit among old and young.

President Roosevelt has withdrawn a dinner invitation to Senator Tillman. He continues to treat Booker T. Washington with distinguished consideration, more honor to him.

It is suggested that the South Carolinians who sent Tillman to the senate ought to be punished, too. If he goes home and lives among them the punishment will be severe enough.

It is stated in a Columbus newspaper that the object of Bryan's visit to that city was "to settle the fate of the party." Looks as if he had settled it effectually in 1900.

Congressman Wheeler assumes all responsibility for his Prince Henry speech. He will find nobody who wants to share responsibility with him.

The prince is showing himself such a good fellow that he would probably be popular even if his brother were not the kaiser.

Evidence abounds that the throne which the young King of Spain is soon to ascend is decidedly wobbly.

The oftener Bryan visits Ohio the better for the Republican party.

UNPROVOKED ASSAULT

Made on a Young Woman By an Italian at Steubenville.

Steubenville, February 25.—In the very heart of the city and on the principal thoroughfare, where hundreds of people pass every few moments, Canis Matasa, an Italian, aged 26, walked in a crowd of young girls who were conversing, and without a word of warning, struck Miss Winnie Geary, daughter of Michael Geary, of Prospect avenue, a blow, threw her to the ground and then attempted to choke her.

Such is the story of Miss Geary and her friends and several passersby who saw the Italian commit the assault.

What his intention was is not known, but in an affidavit filed with Mayor Means, Miss Geary charges him with assault with intent to kill.

POTTERY NEWS

One of the most pleasant socials ever held by Turners' and Handlers' local No. 10 was held in Maccabees' hall last evening. The business session lasted but a short time and the social commenced at 8 o'clock and did not end until 11:30. Luncheon was served at 10 o'clock and before that time a pleasing entertainment was presented. Music was furnished by Roe's orchestra and the Headley brothers gave a piano duet. A song, "The Sentinel Asleep," was rendered in a pleasing manner by Joseph Simpson. Leroy Orr, of No. 12, gave a German dialect recitation, entitled "Who Broke the Jigger, or the Mold Runner's Revenge." It was the hit of the evening.

The work of placing the machinery in the new Barborton pottery has been commenced under the supervision of Jean Jester. The task was commenced last Thursday, and this week several local men will be sent to that to assist in the work. Mr. Jester will remain in the employ of the company after the machinery is in place, acting as chief engineer. Most of the machinery has been delivered, and the plant may be in shape to start before June 1. The sagger room will be in readiness soon, and a force of sagger will be sent there as soon as this department is completed.

During the past few days a large force of men has been put to work remodeling the old electric light plant in Pink alley. The site will be occupied by the East Liverpool Sagger company. The engine to be used has been ordered and is expected to arrive this week. The foundation for the gas engine is finished, and bricklayers are now building flues in the sagger dry house. In the largest part of this building, which has been converted into a two story affair, on the second floor the pins and stilts will be made. It is the intention to begin work on the kilns this week, provided the weather continues favorable.

Henry Peterson, an apprentice presser employed in one of the hill potteries, to whom a legacy was left recently, proposes to locate in New Jersey, near the seacoast, and one of the popular summer resorts. Peterson will start poultry farm and will make the trip to the east overland, taking the national pike. He has purchased two good road horses, and will stop at Fallston, where he will load his wagon with ware from the Fallston pottery, selling it along the route.

At a meeting of local No. 19, ground layers and gilders, held in Knights of Columbus hall last evening, the first nomination for convention delegates was made. Pressers' local No. 4 last evening opened nominations for convention delegates. There were 26 names presented, from which five delegates are to be selected. Jiggermen's local meets tonight to open nominations.

The statement has been made that work on the new pottery to be erected at Sebring will be commenced as soon as the weather permits. This will likely be a six kiln plant. So far no plans have been drawn for the new factory, but this will be a matter to be taken up after all other details are completed.

George Hulme, one of the best known young pottery workers in the city, has taken a position as turner at the New Castle pottery. He spent Sunday in this city visiting relatives, and returned to New Castle yesterday. He expects to remove his family to New Castle soon.

Edward Hargraves, a packer at the Cartwright, had his left hand seriously injured yesterday by having it caught between the jam of a door and a cask he was rolling out of the packing shed. He will be unable to work for several days.

During the latter part of this week extensive repairs will be made to the engine at the Union. The machinery has been partially repaired recently, and the figgermen are much pleased at the manner in which it now works.

Smith McDole, who has been employed as a sticker-up at the East Liverpool, has resigned his position. His place will be filled by Roy Ridsen, who has been employed at the same plant as an apprentice presser.

John, better known as "Nipper" Owen, a biscuit kilnman at Cartwright, was injured by falling in a kiln last Friday, has resumed his bench. His injuries were not so serious as was at first thought.

Walter Bettridge, who has been seriously ill at his home on Walnut street for several weeks, is able to be out. It is not thought he will be able to resume his trade as a dipper.

Willis Stewart, who has been employed as a jiggerman at the East Palestine pottery for some time, has returned to this city. He has taken a position at the Harker.

Work was suspended at the Diamond yesterday afternoon while some needed repairs were being made to the engine. The clay department resumed this morning as usual.

James Bowles, a dipper at the Cartwright, who has been ill at his home in Center alley for several weeks, is able to be out. He will return to work next week.

James Lowers, a kilnman at the Goodwin, has resigned his position and left yesterday for Lisbon, where he has taken a position with the Thomas China company.

Neal Laird, a kilnhand at the Union, who has been confined to his home for several days on account of an injury received to his back, has resumed his bench.

William Grice, a packer at the Cartwright, who has been ill at his home on Trentvale street with pneumonia, resumed work yesterday.

John "Beezum" Elliott, a kilnhand at the Oliver China at Sebring, is visiting his wife at the home of M. C. Hollinger, of Fourth street.

Miss Mary McCarter, who has been working as a stamper at Laughlin No. 2, has been transferred to the general decorating department.

Twelve men now compose the glost crew at the Buckeye. This is the largest crew that has worked at the plant for several months.

Contractor Gamble went to Barborton yesterday where he will superintend the work of finishing the kilns at the new pottery.

George Horner, bench boss at the Buckeye, has been ill at his home in Calcutta for a week. He returned to work yesterday.

Fred Wyand is now a member of the glost crew at the Buckeye. He was formerly employed at Laughlin No. 1.

James Rinehart, who is employed in the general office at Sebring, spent Sunday in the city visiting his family.

Jere Lanning, a glost kilnhand at the Buckeye, who was ill for some time, has returned to work.

Austin Thomas, formerly of Laughlin No. 1, has taken a glost bench at the Buckeye.

Miss Fay Herron, of Wall street, a finisher at the East Liverpool, is ill at her home.

Carl Wucherer, a handle-maker at the East Liverpool, has resigned his position.

FRIENDS AND VISITORS

Harold T. Knowles returned yesterday from New York.

W. J. Todd, of Parkersburg, arrived in the city this morning, where he will visit friends for several weeks.

Mrs. Carrie Frame, of Wheeling, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bond, of Third street.

Mrs. Paul Gilmore, nee Goodman, who has been in the city for a few days, the guest of her mother, Mrs. James Goodwin, of Broadway, left yesterday for Cleveland, where she will join her husband, who is playing there this week. Mrs. Goodwin left today to spend a short time with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. S. Brock, of Wheeling, who have been visiting friends in this city for several days, returned home this morning. ## UNPROVOKED ASSAULT

Made on a Young Woman By an Italian at Steubenville.

Steubenville, February 25.—In the very heart of the city and on the principal thoroughfare, where hundreds of people pass every few moments, Canis Matasa, an Italian, aged 26, walked in a crowd of young girls who were conversing, and without a word of warning, struck Miss Winnie Geary, daughter of Michael Geary, of Prospect avenue, a blow, threw her to the ground and then attempted to choke her.

Such is the story of Miss Geary and her friends and several passersby who saw the Italian commit the assault.

What his intention was is not known, but in an affidavit filed with Mayor Means, Miss Geary charges him with assault with intent to kill.

POTTERY NEWS

One of the most pleasant socials ever held by Turners' and Handlers' local No. 10 was held in Maccabees' hall last evening. The business session lasted but a short time and the social commenced at 8 o'clock and did not end until 11:30. Luncheon was served at 10 o'clock and before that time a pleasing entertainment was presented. Music was furnished by Roe's orchestra and the Headley brothers gave a piano duet. A song, "The Sentinel Asleep," was rendered in a pleasing manner by Joseph Simpson. Leroy Orr, of No. 12, gave a German dialect recitation, entitled "Who Broke the Jigger, or the Mold Runner's Revenge." It was the hit of the evening.

The work of placing the machinery in the new Barberton pottery has been commenced under the supervision of Jean Jester. The task was commenced last Thursday, and this week several local men will be sent to that to assist in the work. Mr. Jester will remain in the employ of the company after the machinery is in place, acting as chief engineer. Most of the machinery has been delivered, and the plant may be in shape to start before June 1. The sagger room will be in readiness soon, and a force of sagger will be sent there as soon as this department is completed.

During the past few days a large force of men has been put to work remodeling the old electric light plant in Pink alley. The site will be occupied by the East Liverpool Sagger company. The engine to be used has been ordered and is expected to arrive this week. The foundation for the gas engine is finished, and bricklayers are now building flues in the sagger dry house. In the largest part of this building, which has been converted into a two story affair, on the second floor the pins and stilts will be made. It is the intention to begin work on the kilns this week, provided the weather continues favorable.

Henry Peterson, an apprentice presser employed in one of the hill potteries, to whom a legacy was left recently, proposes to locate in New Jersey, near the seacoast, and one of the popular summer resorts. Peterson will start poultry farm and will make the trip to the east overland, taking the national pike. He has purchased two good road horses, and will stop at Fallston, where he will load his wagon with ware from the Fallston pottery, selling it along the route.

At a meeting of local No. 19, ground layers and gliders, held in Knights of Columbus hall last evening, the first nomination for convention delegates was made. Pressers' local No. 4 last evening opened nominations for convention delegates. There were 26 names presented, from which five delegates are to be selected. Jiggermen's local meets tonight to open nominations.

The statement has been made that work on the new pottery to be erected at Sebring will be commenced as soon as the weather permits. This will likely be a six kiln plant. So far no plans have been drawn for the new factory, but this will be a matter to be taken up after all other details are completed.

George Hulme, one of the best known young pottery workers in the city, has taken a position as turner at the New Castle pottery. He spent Sunday in this city visiting relatives, and returned to New Castle yesterday. He expects to remove his family to New Castle soon.

Edward Hargraves, a packer at the Carwright, had his left hand seriously injured yesterday by having it caught between the jam of a door and a cask he was rolling out of the packing shed. He will be unable to work for several days.

During the latter part of this week extensive repairs will be made to the engine at the Union. The machinery has been partially repaired recently, and the figgermen are much pleased at the manner in which it now works.

Smith McDole, who has been employed as a sticker-up at the East Liverpool, has resigned his position. His place will be filled by Roy Ridsen, who has been employed at the same plant as an apprentice presser.

John, better known as "Nipper" Owen, a biscuit kilnman at Cartwright, was injured by falling in a kiln last Friday, has resumed his bench. His injuries were not so serious as was at first thought.

Walter Bettridge, who has been seriously ill at his home on Walnut street for several weeks, is able to be out. It is not thought he will be able to resume his trade as a dipper.

Willis Stewart, who has been employed as a jiggerman at the East Palestine pottery for some time, has returned to this city. He has taken a position at the Barker.

Work was suspended at the Diamond yesterday afternoon while some needed repairs were being made to the engine. The clay department resumed this morning as usual.

James Bowles, a dipper at the Cartwright, who has been ill at his home in Center alley for several weeks, is able to be out. He will return to work next week.

James Lowers, a kilnman at the Goodwin, has resigned his position and left yesterday for Lisbon, where he has taken a position with the Thomas China company.

Neal Laird, a kilnhand at the Union, who has been confined to his home for several days on account of an injury received to his back, has resumed his bench.

William Grice, a packer at the Cartwright, who has been ill at his home on Trentvale street with pneumonia, resumed work yesterday.

John "Beezum" Elliott, a kilnhand at the Oliver China at Sebring, is visiting his wife at the home of M. C. Hollinger, of Fourth street.

Miss Mary McCarter, who has been working as a stamper at Laughlin No. 2, has been transferred to the general decorating department.

Twelve men now compose the glost crew at the Buckeye. This is the largest crew that has worked at the plant for several months.

Contractor Gamble went to Barberton yesterday where he will superintend the work of finishing the kilns at the new pottery.

George Horner, bench boss at the Buckeye, has been ill at his home in Calcutta for a week. He returned to work yesterday.

Fred Wyand is now a member of the glost crew at the Buckeye. He was formerly employed at Laughlin No. 1.

James Rinehart, who is employed in the general office at Sebring, spent Sunday in the city visiting his family.

Jere Lanning, a glost kilnhand at the Buckeye, who was ill for some time, has returned to work.

Austin Thomas, formerly of Laughlin No. 1, has taken a glost bench at the Buckeye.

Miss Fay Herron, of Wall street, a finisher at the East Liverpool, is ill at her home.

Carl Wucherer, a handle-maker at the East Liverpool, has resigned his position.

COUNTY CLERK McNUTT STANDS GOOD FOR EXPENSES.

Arrangements Satisfactory to the Local Committee—A Talk on Citizens' Ticket.

The city Republican central committee has succeeded in procuring the necessary money from the county Republican central committee to defray the expenses which will be incurred in the county primary election.

The city committee passed a resolution that no county primary would be held unless the county committee furnished $50 for expenses. The action taken by the city committee has been much ridiculed, but the committee stood firm.

At a meeting of the committee held last evening a communication from J. S. McNutt, secretary of the county central committee, was read.

It stated that there would have been no difficulty in supplying the $50 if the request had come earlier. Now there is no money in the treasury, and Secretary McNutt proposed to give his personal check for the amount, necessary, if the Wellsville committee would state by return mail the exact cost of the election.

The actual cost of the election will be much less than $50, and the arrangement is satisfactory.

Other business of the committee came up. It was stated that a $20 deficiency in the treasury when the present committee took charge of Republican affairs had never been settled. No misappropriation was charged and the matter will be further investigated at the next meeting.

Edward Martin thought that the citizens' central committee ought to be asked to withdraw its public endorsement of several of the candidates whose names are on the Republican ticket. His reason was that every man endorsed by the citizens' committee would be handicapped to such an extent that he would never have any show at a succeeding election. "The people in general will not vote for a man endorsed by a church committee," stated Martin.

Some of the members did not think it advisable to take action on the question, and it was dropped.

J. R. Stoakes was elected chairman of the committee. Edwin Alton was elected secretary and A. C. Baker treasurer. The following names were supplied to fill the places of those who were originally placed in nomination, but who refused to run: Harry Moore, for school board; Sheridan Barnett, for county trustee.

Several committees were appointed to make preparations for necessary literature and finances and also for the purpose of procuring campaign speakers.

NOT CARS BUT ENGINES

The Scarcity of the Latter an Embarrassment to Many Industries.

The complaints among the officials of the many industrial plants in this city in regard to their not being able to procure cars for the shipment of their product remain prevalent.

It seems that the necessary cars cannot be obtained at any cost. As a result the Wellsville business men concerned are daily losing an enormous amount of money.

A railway official stated last evening that the present state of affairs is not due to there being no cars, but to the scarcity of engines. In explaining he said:

"Eighteen engines belonging to the C. & P. company are now being used on the Ft. Wayne road. However, the engines will be returned in a month or so, as by that time the lake region will have opened and it is absolutely necessary that the C. & P. have all the engines obtainable at that time, if not it will be impossible to handle the freight. During the winter season shipping is generally scant on the C. & P. and prolific on the Ft. Wayne, so it is deemed advisable by both companies to borrow and lend during their alternate seasons."

DEATH-LADEN WIRE

Shocked a Team of Horses And Rendered Them Helpless—Men Narrowly Escaped.

A telephone wire dangling in the air in close proximity to the ground at the corner of First and Liverpool streets, charged with electricity due to its contact with a trolley wire, resulted disastrously to a team of horses and came very near causing the loss of two human lives at an early hour last evening.

Joseph and George Withers, farmers living near Glasgow, were returning home in a wagon when their horses fell on the ground as if dead. In seeking to discover the cause they narrowly escaped contact with the wire in the darkness. It is said both horses will be useless. The accident delayed street car traffic nearly an hour.

Why Did They Abandon Pompeii?

At a period when newspaper discussions were rather rapid, despite the accredited appearance of the sea serpent and the arrival of the large potato, Max Nordau in an Austrian journal propounded a problem that should lead to useful inquiry:

Why was it that the inhabitants of Pompeii did not return to their homes after the destruction of the city?

Of the 30,000 inhabitants a few hundreds at most seem to have lost their lives. The eruption of Vesuvius lasted only a few days. The deposit of lava and ashes was not very thick. The houses might have been easily repaired. Many of them stand to this day. They were beautiful houses, many of them, richly appointed and containing valuables of great price. Had the Pompeians no love of home, or were they too superstitious, or did their terror at the eruption make them believe the disaster might come again?

A SCARED ITALIAN

Alleged That He Had Been Threatened By Tony Ross—No Arrest.

An Italian, who could not speak English, called at the mayor's office this afternoon and through an interpreter, stated that Toney Ross, the Sixth street shoemaker, had threatened to shoot him.

Officer Morris was sent to Ross' home to investigate. The accused man at once hunted up the mayor and explained that the man who had made information against him was alarmed without cause. Tony said he never threatened to shoot, but only wanted his accuser, who boarded with him, to leave.

Why Did They Abandon Pompeii?

At a period when newspaper discussions were rather rapid, despite the accredited appearance of the sea serpent and the arrival of the large potato, Max Nordau in an Austrian journal propounded a problem that should lead to useful inquiry:

Why was it that the inhabitants of Pompeii did not return to their homes after the destruction of the city?

Of the 30,000 inhabitants a few hundreds at most seem to have lost their lives. The eruption of Vesuvius lasted only a few days. The deposit of lava and ashes was not very thick. The houses might have been easily repaired. Many of them stand to this day. They were beautiful houses, many of them, richly appointed and containing valuables of great price. Had the Pompeians no love of home, or were they too superstitious, or did their terror at the eruption make them believe the disaster might come again?

WELLSVILLE

WELLSVILLE WILL VOTE

COUNTY CLERK McNUTT STANDS GOOD FOR EXPENSES.

Arrangements Satisfactory to the Local Committee—A Talk on Citizens' Ticket.

The city Republican central committee has succeeded in procuring the necessary money from the county Republican central committee to defray the expenses which will be incurred in the county primary election.

The city committee passed a resolution that no county primary would be held unless the county committee furnished $50 for expenses. The action taken by the city committee has been much ridiculed, but the committee stood firm.

At a meeting of the committee held last evening a communication from J. S. McNutt, secretary of the county central committee, was read.

It stated that there would have been no difficulty in supplying the $50 if the request had come earlier. Now there is no money in the treasury, and Secretary McNutt proposed to give his personal check for the amount, necessary, if the Wellsville committee would state by return mail the exact cost of the election.

The actual cost of the election will be much less than $50, and the arrangement is satisfactory.

Other business of the committee came up. It was stated that a $20 deficiency in the treasury when the present committee took charge of Republican affairs had never been settled. No misappropriation was charged and the matter will be further investigated at the next meeting.

Edward Martin thought that the citizens' central committee ought to be asked to withdraw its public endorsement of several of the candidates whose names are on the Republican ticket. His reason was that every man endorsed by the citizens' committee would be handicapped to such an extent that he would never have any show at a succeeding election. "The people in general will not vote for a man endorsed by a church committee," stated Martin.

Some of the members did not think it advisable to take action on the question, and it was dropped.

J. R. Stokes was elected chairman of the committee. Edwin Alton was elected secretary and A. C. Baker treasurer. The following names were supplied to fill the places of those who were originally placed in nomination, but who refused to run: Harry Moore, for school board; Sheridan Barnett, for county trustee.

Several committees were appointed to make preparations for necessary literature and finances and also for the purpose of procuring campaign speakers.

NOT CARS BUT ENGINES

The Scarcity of the Latter an Embarrassment to Many Industries.

The complaints among the officials of the many industrial plants in this city in regard to their not being able to procure cars for the shipment of their product remain prevalent.

It seems that the necessary cars cannot be obtained at any cost. As a result the Wellsville business men concerned are daily losing an enormous amount of money.

A railway official stated last evening that the present state of affairs is not due to there being no cars, but to the scarcity of engines. In explaining he said:

"Eighteen engines belonging to the C. & P. company are now being used on the Ft. Wayne road. However, the engines will be returned in a month or so, as by that time the lake region will have opened and it is absolutely necessary that the C. & P. have all the engines obtainable at that time. If not it will be impossible to handle the freight. During the winter season shipping is generally scant on the C. & P. and profligate on the Ft. Wayne, so it is deemed advisable by both companies to borrow and lend during their alternate seasons."

DEATH-LADEN WIRE

Shocked a Team of Horses And Rendered Them Helpless—Men Narrowly Escaped.

A telephone wire dangling in the air in close proximity to the ground at the corner of First and Liverpool streets, charged with electricity due to its contact with a trolley wire, resulted disastrously to a team of horses and came very near causing the loss of two human lives at an early hour last evening.

Joseph and George Withers, farmers living near Glasgow, were returning home in a wagon when their horses fell on the ground as if dead. In seeking to discover the cause they narrowly escaped contact with the wire in the darkness. It is said both horses will be useless. The accident delayed street car traffic nearly an hour.

TARIFF BILL PASSED.

The Philippine Measure Went Through In Senate, 46 Ayes to 26 Nays.

MARYLAND MEN WRANGLLED.

Wellington and McComas Engage In Hot Talk—Frye Decided South Carolina Senators Could Not Vote. Some Amendments to Tariff Bill.

Washington, Feb. 25.—After eight hours of tumultuous debate yesterday the senate, shortly before 7 o'clock last evening, passed the Philippine tariff bill by a vote of 46 to 26, as a strictly party vote. Mr. Tillman and Mr. McComas, the two senators from South Carolina, who on Saturday last were declared by the senate to be in contempt because of their fight in the chamber, were not permitted by voice or by vote to participate in the proceedings.

The question as to their right to vote precipitated a sharp debate, lasting nearly two hours. Mr. Turner (Dem., Wash.) contended vigorously for the right of the two senators to cast their votes, and he was sustained by Mr. Patterson (Colo.) Mr. Bailey (Texas) and other Democrats. They held that even though the two senators actually were under arrest and in the custody of the sergeant-at-arms they could demand that they be allowed to vote, as the senate had not passed on their case.

Mr. Foraker, Mr. Aldrich and other Republicans held that the senators clearly could not participate in any of the proceedings of the senate until they had purged themselves of contempt and the senate had removed the ban placed on them.

Frye Decided Against Senators.
The president pro tem, Mr. Frye, held that the two senators could not vote, and he was sustained by a majority of the senate.

During the debate on the Philippine bill Mr. McComas and Mr. Wellington, of Maryland, became involved in a controversy, in the course of which the latter declared that if Mr. McComas should make his statements outside of the senate chamber he would brand them as a malicious falsehood. He was called to order promptly and resumed his seat amid considerable excitement.

Many amendments were offered to the Philippine bill, but except those offered by the committee, only one, an amendment restricting the operation of the sedition laws enacted by the Taft commission, was passed. The amendment of Mr. Foraker, fixing the rate of duties levied upon products coming into the United States from the Philippines at 50 per cent of the Dingley rates, instead of 75 per cent, as fixed in the bill, was lost, but it received a large Republican vote. Had the Democrats voted for it as a party it would have carried, but many Democrats voted against it.

As passed the measure provides that articles imported into the Philippine archipelago from the United States shall be required to pay the duties levied against them by the Philippine commission and paid upon like articles imported into the archipelago from foreign countries; that articles imported into the United States from the Philippines shall pay a duty of 75 per cent of the rates fixed by the Dingley law, less any export taxes paid upon the articles sent from the Philippine archipelago as required by the Philippine commission. All articles now imported free into the United States shall be hereafter exempt from export duties imposed in the Philippines.

Exempts Navigation Laws.
The bill exempts the commerce placing between the United States and the Philippines from the operation of the navigation laws of the United States until Jan. 1, 1904, and authorizes the Philippine commission to issue licenses to craft now engaged in lighterage or exclusively harbor business, provided such craft are built in the United States or in the Philippines and owned by citizens of the United States or by inhabitants of the Philippine islands. The duties and taxes collected in pursuance of this act shall be paid into the treasury of the Philippine islands and used for their benefit.

All articles manufactured in bonded manufacturing warehouses of imported materials, or of materials subject to internal revenue tax, when shipped from the United States to the Philippines, shall be exempt from the internal revenue tax, and all taxes paid upon such articles shipped to the Philippine islands since Nov. 15, 1901, shall be refunded.

Save the Big Game Of Alaska

By WILLIAM T. HORNADAY, Director of the New York Zoological Park

THAT the tragedy of the bison may not be repeated in the case of the big game of Alaska a bill is to be immediately introduced in congress providing for a national game preserve in southern Alaska. Alaska contains the grandest hunting grounds in North America. They are inhabited by the giant moose, the largest antlered animal inhabiting the earth; the Kadiak brown bear, largest of all flesh eating land animals, and the mountain caribou, largest and finest of its genus. The snow white mountain sheep is there, the mountain goat, black and yellow bears and the rare, new glacier bear, as yet never seen in captivity and in only one museum. All these fine animals are being slaughtered by sportsmen, hide hunters, head hunters and Indians, who kill often five animals for every one that they properly consume.

IN THE UNITED STATES STATUTES THERE IS NOT ONE LINE OF GAME LAW, EITHER TO PROTECT THE GAME OF ALASKA OR RESTRICT ITS SLAUGHTER IN ANY NUMBER.

Nature has been millions of years in developing the wonderful animal forms now inhabiting this arctic province, which man is now thoroughly exterminating. UNLESS QUICK AND EFFECTIVE MEASURES ARE TAKEN BY CONGRESS THE NEXT TEN YEARS OF SLAUGHTER WILL LEAVE ALASKA ONLY A BARREN, LIFELESS WASTE OF RUGGED MOUNTAINS AND DREARY TUNDRAS. Already the western side of Alaska has been almost cleared of large mammalian life.

As if disposed by nature to make easy the task of preservation, this narrow strip of coastwise territory in southwestern Alaska, extending from the head of Bristol bay around to Yakutat bay, is today a natural park, stocked abundantly.

It is inhabited by a very small number of Indians and Aleuts and a very few white traders and hunters. CONGRESS SHOULD CREATE THIS TERRITORY A NATIONAL GAME PRESERVE AND PROVIDE FOR ITS EFFECTIVE PROTECTION AND REGULATION ON THE GENERAL LINES OF THE YELLOWSTONE PARK.

If it is found advisable to permit limited hunting under government license, let the law so provide. The interests of the natives can be conserved, but no Indian ever again should be permitted to slaughter big game at will. The shameful work in western Alaska should never be repeated in the south. The sale of breechloading firearms to natives in that territory should be stopped immediately.

CHARLESTON "LOST."

An Episode of the Telegraph After the Great Earthquake.

How powerfully the imagination may be stimulated by a story told in dots and dashes is illustrated by an episode of the Charleston earthquake, relates L. C. Hall. At the moment of the final shock every wire connecting Charleston with the outside world was instantly "lost." And as no other tidings could be had from the doomed city it was as if in an instant it had been swept from the face of the earth. And for many hours Charleston remained literally dead to the world.

The next morning before the average citizen had time to collect his wits the telegraph people had started out gangs of linemen to get the wires in working order. Operators in the principal offices within a radius of several hundred miles were set to calling "C. N." For a long time there was no response, but at last on the wire which I had in charge a slight answering signal was felt rather than heard—faint and flickering, like the first sign of returning life. From that moment my watch was, if possible, more diligent. For an hour or more I called, "Adjusted," and used every effort to revive the feeble pulse. I could fancy myself working desperately to resuscitate a half drowned man. Again I felt the flickering signal, and then once more all signs of life faded away. Finally as the wires were gradually cleared of debris the current began to strengthen, and then came the answering "I—I! C. N." weak and unsteady, but still sufficiently plain to be made out.

To me it sounded like a voice from the tomb, and I shouted along the tidings that Charleston was still in existence. Quickly the sounder was surrounded by a throng of excited telegraphers. The Morse was broken and unsteady at first, then the current grew stronger—the patient was growing better—and for a long time we listened to the labored clicking, until at last the worst was known. And at the end of the recital a great sigh went out from the hearts of all of us, as if literally in our presence a long buried city had been exhumed.—McClure's.

Horses and Color.

As regards color, gray horses live longest, roan horses nearly as long. Cream colored horses are deficient in staying power, especially in summer weather. Bays, on an average, are the best. Horses with black hoofs are stronger and tougher than others.

AN OPPORTUNITY

Many people would like to honor the memory of departed loved ones with a handsome monument, but the high prices demanded by the local monument dealers prevent them. We sell and deliver fine monuments or headstones at much lower prices than similar stones can be obtained elsewhere. Most of your local monument dealers work by expensive hand methods, while our work is done by the most improved labor saving machinery. Machine work not only lessens the cost of the monument, but insures better results as the moldings, letters, etc., are cut much deeper and smoother than by hand and therefore show plainer. The stone we use is the very best—will not rust, discolor or become streaked as most granites do. We sell to monument dealers at wholesale and also sell direct to the individual buyer, delivering complete in the cemetery. Our handsome booklet with designs explains all. It's free if you mention this paper.

Comes That Way.

A young minister who was naturally of a shy disposition was rather embarrassed at his first marriage ceremony and unwittingly reversed the usual order of the service, thus making the bridegroom promise to love and obey his blushing bride. The error passed unnoticed at the time, but shortly afterward it dawned upon the father of the bride that a mistake had occurred, and he said to the minister:

"I believe, Mr. —, you have made John promise to love and obey my daughter. Ah, well," he added after a pause and with a sly look at his better half, "I suppose it won't matter much. It generally comes to that anyway."—Pearson's.

Does It Pay to Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the most severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible. If not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest and cures the patient. Try one bottle. # TARIFF BILL PASSED.

The Philippine Measure Went Through In Senate, 46 Ayes to 26 Nays.

MARYLAND MEN WRANGLLED.

Wellington and McComas Engage In Hot Talk—Frye Decided South Carolina Senators Could Not Vote. Some Amendments to Tariff Bill.

Washington, Feb. 25.—After eight hours of tumultuous debate yesterday the senate, shortly before 7 o'clock last evening, passed the Philippine tariff bill by a vote of 46 to 26, as a strictly party vote. Mr. Tillman and Mr. McComas, the two senators from South Carolina, who on Saturday last were declared by the senate to be in contempt because of their flight in the chamber, were not permitted by voice or by vote to participate in the proceedings.

The question as to their right to vote precipitated a sharp debate, lasting nearly two hours. Mr. Turner (Dem., Wash.) contended vigorously for the right of the two senators to cast their votes, and he was sustained by Mr. Patterson (Colo.) Mr. Bailey (Texas) and other Democrats. They held that even though the two senators actually were under arrest and in the custody of the sergeant-at-arms they could demand that they be allowed to vote, as the senate had not passed on their case.

Mr. Foraker, Mr. Aldrich and other Republicans held that the senators clearly could not participate in any of the proceedings of the senate until they had purged themselves of contempt and the senate had removed the ban placed on them.

Frye Decided Against Senators. The president pro tem, Mr. Frye, held that the two senators could not vote, and he was sustained by a majority of the senate.

During the debate on the Philippine bill Mr. McComas and Mr. Wellington, of Maryland, became involved in a controversy, in the course of which the latter declared that if Mr. McComas should make his statements outside of the senate chamber he would brand them as a malicious falsehood. He was called to order promptly and resumed his seat amid considerable excitement.

Many amendments were offered to the Philippine bill, but except those offered by the committee, only one, an amendment restricting the operation of the addition laws enacted by the Taft commission, was passed. The amendment of Mr. Foraker, fixing the rate of duties levied upon products coming into the United States from the Philippines at 50 per cent of the Dingley rates, instead of 75 per cent, as fixed in the bill, was lost, but it received a large Republican vote. Had the Democrats voted for it as a party it would have carried, but many Democrats voted against it.

As passed the measure provides that articles imported into the Philippine archipelago from the United States shall be required to pay the duties levied against them by the Philippine commission and paid upon like articles imported into the archipelago from foreign countries; that articles imported into the United States from the Philippines shall pay a duty of 75 per cent of the rates fixed by the Dingley law, less any export taxes paid upon the articles sent from the Philippine archipelago as required by the Philippine commission. All articles now imported free into the United States shall be hereafter exempt from export duties imposed in the Philippines.

Exempts Navigation Laws. The bill exempts the commerce placing between the United States and the Philippines from the operation of the navigation laws of the United States until Jan. 1, 1904, and authorizes the Philippine commission to issue licenses to craft now engaged in lighterage or exclusively harbor business, provided such craft are built in the United States or in the Philippines and owned by citizens of the United States or by inhabitants of the Philippine islands. The duties and taxes collected in pursuance of this act shall be paid into the treasury of the Philippine islands and used for their benefit.

All articles manufactured in bonded manufacturing warehouses of imported materials, or of materials subject to internal revenue tax, when shipped from the United States to the Philippines, shall be exempt from the internal revenue tax, and all taxes paid upon such articles shipped to the Philippine islands since Nov. 15, 1901, shall be refunded.

By request of Senator McLaurin, Senator Pritchard introduced a reso-

Save the Big Game Of Alaska

By WILLIAM T. HORNADAY, Director of the New York Zoological Park

THAT the tragedy of the bison may not be repeated in the case of the big game of Alaska a bill is to be immediately introduced in congress providing for a national game preserve in southern Alaska. Alaska contains the grandest hunting grounds in North America. They are inhabited by the giant moose, the largest antlered animal inhabiting the earth; the Kadiak brown bear, largest of all flesh eating land animals, and the mountain caribou, largest and finest of its genus. The snow white mountain sheep is there, the mountain goat, black and yellow bears and the rare, new glacier bear, as yet never seen in captivity and in only one museum. All these fine animals are being slaughtered by sportsmen, hide hunters, head hunters and Indians, who kill often five animals for every one that they properly consume.

IN THE UNITED STATES STATUTES THERE IS NOT ONE LINE OF GAME LAW, EITHER TO PROTECT THE GAME OF ALASKA OR RESTRICT ITS SLAUGHTER IN ANY NUMBER.

Nature has been millions of years in developing the wonderful animal forms now inhabiting this arctic province, which man is now thoroughly exterminating. UNLESS QUICK AND EFFECTIVE MEASURES ARE TAKEN BY CONGRESS THE NEXT TEN YEARS OF SLAUGHTER WILL LEAVE ALASKA ONLY A BARREN, LIFELESS WASTE OF RUGGED MOUNTAINS AND DREARY TUNDRAS. Already the western side of Alaska has been almost cleared of large mammalian life.

As if disposed by nature to make easy the task of preservation, this narrow strip of coastwise territory in southwestern Alaska, extending from the head of Bristol bay around to Yakutat bay, is today a natural park, stocked abundantly.

It is inhabited by a very small number of Indians and Aleuts and a very few white traders and hunters. CONGRESS SHOULD CREATE THIS TERRITORY A NATIONAL GAME PRESERVE AND PROVIDE FOR ITS EFFECTIVE PROTECTION AND REGULATION ON THE GENERAL LINES OF THE YELLOWSTONE PARK.

If it is found advisable to permit limited hunting under government license, let the law so provide. The interests of the natives can be conserved, but no Indian ever again should be permitted to slaughter big game at will. The shameful work in western Alaska should never be repeated in the south. The sale of breechloading firearms to natives in that territory should be stopped immediately.

CHARLESTON "LOST."

An Episode of the Telegraph After the Great Earthquake.

How powerfully the imagination may be stimulated by a story told in dots and dashes is illustrated by an episode of the Charleston earthquake, relates L. C. Hall. At the moment of the final shock every wire connecting Charleston with the outside world was instantly "lost." And as no other tidings could be had from the doomed city it was as if in an instant it had been swept from the face of the earth. And for many hours Charleston remained literally dead to the world.

The next morning before the average citizen had time to collect his wits the telegraph people had started out gangs of linemen to get the wires in working order. Operators in the principal offices within a radius of several hundred miles were set to calling "C. N." For a long time there was no response, but at last on the wire which I had in charge a slight answering signal was felt rather than heard—faint and flickering, like the first sign of returning life. From that moment my watch was, if possible, more diligent. For an hour or more I called, "Adjusted," and used every effort to revive the feeble pulse. I could fancy myself working desperately to resuscitate a half drowned man. Again I felt the flickering signal, and then once more all signs of life faded away. Finally as the wires were gradually cleared of debris the current began to strengthen, and then came the answering "—! C. N." weak and unsteady, but still sufficiently plain to be made out.

To me it sounded like a voice from the tomb, and I shouted aloud the tidings that Charleston was still in existence. Quickly the sounder was surrounded by a throng of excited telegraphers. The Morse was broken and unsteady at first, then the current grew stronger—the patient was growing better—and for a long time we listened to the labored clicking, until at last the worst was known. And at the end of the recital a great sigh went out from the hearts of all of us, as if literally in our presence a long buried city had been exhumed.—McClure's.

Horses and Color.

As regards color, gray horses live longest, roan horses nearly as long. Cream colored horses are deficient in staying power, especially in summer weather. Bays, on an average, are the best. Horses with black hoofs are stronger and tougher than others.

TRAMPS ON THE CARS.

The Box Car Is Often Entered by Springing the Door Off.

The box car is often entered by springing the door off its iron way at the side opposite the seal. A party going one way will do this for a party going the opposite direction and then, when all are in, spring the door back again. Since everything externally is in the best of order, long trips may be made in this manner without disturbance or interruption.

Now and then the prisoner is exposed to danger of starvation. A case of this kind has been related to me where only the accidental visit of a train hand saved a man from death. A railroad accident, whether by water or fire, is a very serious affair to passengers of this sort. You have doubtless read more than once, as I have, of tramps drowned like rats or burned or crushed to death while stealing rides in this fashion. Riding the trucks is done in various ways. A locomotive engineer of my acquaintance has shown me the precise spot from which he had taken out two men at one time. It was on the rear truck of the tender. They were resting face downward on the truck beam, with just eleven inches of vertical space for their bodies by actual measurement.—Independent.

The Crescent as an Emblem.

The crescent has been known since time out of memory. In ancient mythology it decorated the foreheads of Diana and of Astarte, the Syrian Venus. In the days of Rome's greatest glory the ladies wore it as an ornament in their hair. Since the foundation of Constantinople, the ancient Byzantium, it has been the emblem of the city and as such adorns its walls and public buildings, besides being stamped on its coins and postage. The legend which accounts for its universal adoption in Turkey, and Constantinople in particular, is as follows:

Philip of Macedon laid siege to the city in the year 340 B. C. He chose a night of unusual darkness for the proposed assault, but was foiled by the moon suddenly breaking from behind a cloud. In commemoration of this providential deliverance the crescent was adopted as the symbol of the city. The Mohammedan sultans were slow to assume this emblem until some one mentioned that it was the symbol of increasing greatness, power changing as rapidly as the phases of the moon.

Many people would like to honor the memory of departed loved ones with a handsome monument, but the high prices demanded by the local monument dealers prevent them. We sell and deliver fine monuments or headstones at much lower prices than similar stones can be obtained elsewhere. Most of your local monument dealers work by expensive hand methods, while our work is done by the most improved labor saving machinery. Machine work not only lessens the cost of the monument, but insures better results as the moldings, letters, etc., are cut much deeper and smoother than by hand and therefore show plainer. The stone we use is the very best—will not rust, discolor or become streaked as most granites do. We sell to monument dealers at wholesale and also sell direct to the individual buyer, delivering complete in the cemetery. Our handsome booklet with designs explains all. The wreck caught fire, and the flames crept toward him. Firemen and others around saturated his clothing with water and placed wet blankets over him, but he was not released until his foot was burned off. It was a gruesome story.

"One of the directors of the road was present. He took the claim agent aside and said: 'Give that man $25,000. If he tells his story in court, he will get damages enough to put the road into the hands of a receiver.' He got the money."—New York Tribune.

Comes That Way.

A young minister who was naturally of a shy disposition was rather embarrassed at his first marriage ceremony and unwittingly reversed the usual order of the service, thus making the bridegroom promise to love and obey his blushing bride. The error passed unnoticed at the time, but shortly afterward it dawned upon the father of the bride that a mistake had occurred, and he said to the minister:

"I believe, Mr. —, you have made John promise to love and obey my daughter. Ah, well," he added after a pause and with a sly look at his better half, "I suppose it won't matter much. It generally comes to that anyway."—Pearson's.

TILLMAN'S RETORT.

Declared President Would Have Done as He Did, Under Like Circumstances.

BARRED FROM DINNER TO PRINCE

It Being Intimated to Him That He Should Withdraw Acceptance of Invitation, He Declined—Canceled by President.

Washington, Feb. 25.—As the outgrowth of the disgraceful scene in the senate on Saturday between Senators Tillman and McLaughlin, President Roosevelt yesterday withdrew the invitation that had been extended the former to attend the dinner given at the White House in Prince Henry's honor. Senator Martin, of Virginia, who was invited in Senator Tillman's place, was not present at the dinner.

The president yesterday morning sent for Senator Cockrell, of Missouri, and asked him as a friend and Democratic colleague of Mr. Tillman to suggest to the latter the propriety of withdrawing his acceptance of the dinner invitation. The president explained his attitude in the matter and said that, in view of the contempt proceedings, Mr. Tillman's presence would not only be an affront to the senate, but a discourtesy to Prince Henry.

Tillman Declined to Accede. Mr. Cockrell accepted the commission and later telephoned to the president that Mr. Tillman absolutely refused to withdraw his acceptance in response to the president's suggestion. The president then immediately canceled the invitation in a note he dispatched directly to Mr. Tillman.

The following was the letter from the White House withdrawing Mr. Tillman's invitation to dine there last night:

"White House, Feb. 24.

"The president regrets that he is compelled to withdraw the invitation to you to dine tonight at the White House.

Very truly yours,

"George B. Cortelyou,

"Secretary to the President."

Commenting upon the letter, Mr. Tillman says:

Hot Statement From Tillman.

"The president, of course, has the right to invite anyone he chooses to dine with him, officially or otherwise, and also has the right to withdraw such invitations. As I am not conscious of having done anything personal or official which gives the president the right to insult, I am surprised at his action. The invitation to the dinner came to me unsought and unexpectedly, and so far as the withdrawal is concerned it is a matter of absolute indifference to me. It is the motive behind it which seeks to put me in the condition of unworthiness to meet the president and his guest before final action by the senate. Prince Henry, the president's guest, comes from a country where custom makes it obligatory upon any man who regards himself a gentleman to promptly resent an insult, and the method is by challenge to a duel. That was once the custom, but it is now obsolete in the United States, and we have been forced as a people here to cling to the old Anglo-Saxon rule of considering the lie direct as the first blow, and no man could hold up his head in decent society should he, being near enough to answer the lie with a blow, not to give.

Likely Would Have Done the Same.

"As for my being in contempt of

I was frequently so bad that I could scarcely get up when down and in fact could hardly get around at all. I tried many remedies endeavoring to get rid of the trouble, but found nothing until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy. They filled the bill exactly. ## WHERE ARE THE TWO GOBLINS?

the senate, which I presume is the excuse for this insult at the hands of the president, that I deny. I have been guilty of a breach of the rules and the privileges of the senate. The senate was not sitting as a court, but as a legislative assembly. It has the right to expel me if it sees fit, and I am ready to abide its judgment and action. It has the right to arrest me and to hold me in custody until it makes disposition of my case, but it has no right to gag me, and the president has no right to judge me guilty of conduct unbecoming a gentleman unless he believes all his antecedents, which lead one to believe that he would have done just as I did under the circumstances. As to which of us is the gentleman in this matter, in view of the unsought invitation to dinner at the White House and its indecent withdrawal, I am willing to abide by the judgment of all brave and self-respecting men."

A report compiled by Russian consular agents in Turkey shows that during 1901 2,599 Christians were murdered by the Turks, an average of six murders daily. In only 61 cases were the murderers punished. The longest term of imprisonment imposed for the murders was four years, and the shortest term four weeks.

Ninety people were locked in a Brooklyn car because Dr. Murray, of the Brooklyn Hospital of Contagious Diseases, discovered a case of malignant smallpox among the passengers. The car was switched to one of the Brooklyn traction stations and held there until a physician from the board of health had vaccinated the passengers and fumigated the car.

Detectives Gordon and Hornbeck brought to New York from Southampton aboard the American liner St. Louis, James Murray, of West Jefferson, O., extradited for manslaughter. He is accused of killing his wife. Murray was a first cabin passenger and none of his fellow voyagers except the detectives knew that he was under arrest. He gave himself up to the police in Ireland, declaring that the killing was unintentional.

The preliminary examination of Miss Florence Burns, charged with killing her sweetheart, Walter S. Brooks, in New York, has been postponed until Wednesday.

The Patrick trial was postponed Monday because of the funeral of the father of Fred B. House, one of the counsel for the defense.

The Pennsylvania railroad special bearing Prince Henry had just passed a curve about a quarter of a mile east of Bristol, Monday morning, when an extra freight train jumped the track and was badly wrecked. Cars were thrown over four other tracks and traffic was delayed for four hours. Had the prince's special been two minutes later it must inevitably have collided with the wreckage and a disastrous accident would have resulted.

Guy Garber, a prisoner in the Dauphin county, Pa., jail, awaiting trial for larceny, died of smallpox.

Nervous excitement following the discovery that his house had been robbed is believed to have caused the death, at Chicago, of Erskine C. Murphy, formerly manager of the Iowa division of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad. The direct cause of death was pronounced heart failure. Murphy had just sent in a report summoning the police, and was on his way to his home when stricken. The patrol wagon, which had hurried to the scene of the robbery, was called on to stop en route to care for the body of the victim.

Hartsville, Tenn., was almost devastated by fire. Twelve business houses were burned to the ground, entailing a loss of $60,000. The origin of the fire is unknown. This is the second disastrous fire that the village has sustained within the past two years, the first consuming the court house, bank and several business houses.

Number of a Psalm Cabled By Friends In the United States.

Boston, Feb. 25.—The American board sent its greetings to Miss Stone, the missionary released from bandits, by cabling "Psalm 124." The woman's board cabled "Love; welcome home."

The psalm referred to by the American board contains these verses:

"Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers; the snare is broken and we are escaped.

"Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth."

Origin of the Sabbath.

The Sabbath as a religious institution is far older than the Pentateuchal legislation. It, too, can be traced back to a Babylonian prototype, not, however, as a day of rest from labor, but as a kind of atonement day, when by various rites and by observing certain restricted regulations the anger of the gods could be appeased. On this old institution the Hebrews ingrafted their religious ideas and produced the unique institution of a day observed as a respite from the week's toil and which, from being an "inauspicious" occasion, a dies irae, is viewed as a "delight."—Professor Jastrow in Independent.

Proved His Love.

"Are you sure it is really and truly love?" she asked.

"Positive," answered the practical young man who had just proposed. "I tested it."

"Tested it?"

"Yes. I doctored myself for indigestion for two weeks before definitely deciding just what the symptoms meant."

TILLMAN'S RETORT.

Declared President Would Have Done as He Did, Under Like Circumstances.

BARRED FROM DINNER TO PRINCE

It Being Intimated to Him That He Should Withdraw Acceptance of Invitation, He Declined—Canceled by President.

Washington, Feb. 25.—As the outgrowth of the disgraceful scene in the senate on Saturday between Senators Tillman and Mc Laurin, President Roosevelt yesterday withdrew the invitation that had been extended the former to attend the dinner given at the White House in Prince Henry's honor. Senator Martin, of Virginia, who was invited in Senator Tillman's place, was not present at the dinner. The president yesterday morning sent for Senator Cockrell, of Missouri, and asked him as a friend and Democratic colleague of Mr. Tillman to suggest to the latter the propriety of withdrawing his acceptance of the dinner invitation. The president explained his attitude in the matter and said that, in view of the contempt proceedings, Mr. Tillman's presence would not only be an affront to the senate, but a discourtesy to Prince Henry.

Tillman Declined to Accede. Mr. Cockrell accepted the commission and later telephoned to the president that Mr. Tillman absolutely refused to withdraw his acceptance in response to the president's suggestion. The president then immediately canceled the invitation in a note he dispatched directly to Mr. Tillman.

The following was the letter from the White House withdrawing Mr. Tillman's invitation to dine there last night:

"White House, Feb. 24. "The president regrets that he is compelled to withdraw the invitation to you to dine tonight at the White House. Very truly yours, "George B. Cortelyou, "Secretary to the President." Commenting upon the letter, Mr. Tillman says:

Hot Statement From Tillman.

"The president, of course, has the right to invite anyone he chooses to dine with him, officially or otherwise, and also has the right to withdraw such invitations. As I am not conscious of having done anything personal or official which gives the president the right to insult, I am surprised at his action. The invitation to the dinner came to me unsought and unexpectedly, and so far as the withdrawal is concerned it is a matter of absolute indifference to me. It is the motive behind it which seeks to put me in the condition of unworthiness to meet the president and his guest before final action by the senate. Prince Henry, the president's guest, comes from a country where custom makes it obligatory upon any man who regards himself a gentleman to promptly resent an insult, and the method is by challenge to a duel. That was once the custom, but it is now obsolete in the United States, and we have been forced as a people here to cling to the old Anglo-Saxon rule of considering the lie direct as the first blow, and no man could hold up his head in decent society should he, being near enough to answer the lie with a blow, not to give.

Likely Would Have Done the Same.

"As for my being in contempt of

East Liverpool citizens praise Doan's Kidney Pills.

Kidney sufferers appreciate this. They find relief for every kidney ill. Read what this citizen says:

Mr. H. Thompson, of 306 Fourth street, presser at the D. E. McNicol pottery, and resident of East Liverpool for the past 45 years, says: "During my campaign experience between the years of '61 and '64 I contracted a weakness of the kidneys, and at intervals I had an aching pain across the small of my back, and was subject to attacks of muscular rheumatism, especially in damp weather. I was frequently so bad that I could scarcely get up when down and in fact could hardly get around at all. I tried many remedies endeavoring to get rid of the trouble, but found nothing until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy. They filled the bill exactly. They gave me almost immediate relief and warded off the last attack."

the senate, which I presume is the excuse for this insult at the hands of the president, that I deny. I have been guilty of a breach of the rules and the privileges of the senate. The senate was not sitting as a court, but as a legislative assembly. It has the right to expel me if it sees fit, and I am ready to abide its judgment and action. It has the right to arrest me and to hold me in custody until it makes disposition of my case, but it has no right to gag me, and the president has no right to judge me guilty of conduct unbecoming a gentleman unless he believes all his antecedents, which lead one to believe that he would have done just as I did under the circumstances. As to which of us is the gentleman in this matter, in view of the unsought invitation to dinner at the White House and its indecent withdrawal, I am willing to abide by the judgment of all brave and self-respecting men."

TILLMAN'S RETORT.

Declared President Would Have Done as He Did, Under Like Circumstances.

BARRED FROM DINNER TO PRINCE

It Being Intimated to Him That He Should Withdraw Acceptance of Invitation, He Declined—Canceled by President.

Washington, Feb. 25.—As the outgrowth of the disgraceful scene in the senate on Saturday between Senators Tillman and McLaurin, President Roosevelt yesterday withdrew the invitation that had been extended the former to attend the dinner given at the White House in Prince Henry's honor. Senator Martin, of Virginia, who was invited in Senator Tillman's place, was not present at the dinner. The president yesterday morning sent for Senator Cockrell, of Missouri, and asked him as a friend and Democratic colleague of Mr. Tillman to suggest to the latter the propriety of withdrawing his acceptance of the dinner invitation. The president explained his attitude in the matter and said that, in view of the contempt proceedings, Mr. Tillman's presence would not only be an affront to the senate, but a discourtesy to Prince Henry.

Tillman Declined to Accede.
Mr. Cockrell accepted the commission and later telephoned to the president that Mr. Tillman absolutely refused to withdraw his acceptance in response to the president's suggestion. The president then immediately canceled the invitation in a note he dispatched directly to Mr. Tillman.

The following was the letter from the White House withdrawing Mr. Tillman's invitation to dine there last night:

"White House, Feb. 24.
"The president regrets that he is compelled to withdraw the invitation to you to dine tonight at the White House.
"Very truly yours,
"George B. Cortelyou,
"Secretary to the President."
Commenting upon the letter, Mr. Tillman says:

Hot Statement From Tillman.

"The president, of course, has the right to invite anyone he chooses to dine with him, officially or otherwise, and also has the right to withdraw such invitations. As I am not conscious of having done anything personal or official which gives the president the right to insult, I am surprised at his action. The invitation to the dinner came to me unsought and unexpectedly, and so far as the withdrawal is concerned it is a matter of absolute indifference to me. It is the motive behind it which seeks to put me in the condition of unworthiness to meet the president and his guest before final action by the senate. Prince Henry, the president's guest, comes from a country where custom makes it obligatory upon any man who regards himself a gentleman to promptly resent an insult, and the method is by challenge to a duel. That was once the custom, but it is now obsolete in the United States, and we have been forced as a people here to cling to the old Anglo-Saxon rule of considering the lie direct as the first blow, and no man could hold up his head in decent society should he, being near enough to answer the lie with a blow, not to give.

Likely Would Have Done the Same.

"As for my being in contempt of the senate, which I presume is the excuse for this insult at the hands of the president, that I deny. I have been guilty of a breach of the rules and the privileges of the senate. The senate was not sitting as a court, but as a legislative assembly. It has the right to expel me if it sees fit, and I am ready to abide its judgment and action. It has the right to arrest me and to hold me in custody until it makes disposition of my case, but it has no right to gag me, and the president has no right to judge me guilty of conduct unbecoming a gentleman unless he believes all his antecedents, which lead one to believe that he would have done just as I did under the circumstances. As to which of us is the gentleman in this matter, in view of the unsought invitation to dinner at the White House and its indecent withdrawal, I am willing to abide by the judgment of all brave and self-respecting men."

MISS STONE CONGRATULATED.

Number of a Psalm Cabled By Friends In the United States.

Boston, Feb. 25.—The American board sent its greetings to Miss Stone, the missionary released from bandits, by cabling "Psalm 124." The woman's board cabled "Love; welcome home."

The psalm referred to by the American board contains these verses: "Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers; the snare is broken and we are escaped. "Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth."

Origin of the Sabbath.

The Sabbath as a religious institution is far older than the Pentateuchal legislation. It, too, can be traced back to a Babylonian prototype, not, however, as a day of rest from labor, but as a kind of atonement day, when by various rites and by observing certain restricted regulations the anger of the gods could be appeased. On this old institution the Hebrews ingrafted their religious ideas and produced the unique institution of a day observed as a respite from the week's toil and which, from being an "inauspicious" occasion, a dies irae, is viewed as a "delight."—Professor Jastrow in Independent.

A BUSINESS MAN FOR CITY COUNCIL

ELECTION OF GEORGE PEACH PRACTICALLY CONCEDED.

One of the Best Councilmen the City Has Ever Had Will Again Be a Member.

As the day of the Republican primary election draws near the friends of the several candidates aspiring to the different offices to be filled take more than ordinary interest in the race.

The nomination of some of the candidates is conceded, particularly George Peach, candidate for council from the Third ward. Mr. Peach, as everybody knows, is one of the best councilmen the city has ever had. His record as a member of the city's legislative body is one of which not only the people of the Third ward are proud, but the entire city as well. During the time he was a member of council many grave questions frequently arose, questions that were of vital importance to the taxpayers of the city, many of them calling for the expenditure of the people's money in large sums, yet not one of them was ever sanctioned or voted for by Mr. Peach unless it was for the best interests of the city. His record is an open book. He is a capable official, because he is a business man of more than ordinary ability. There is perhaps no candidate so situated that he can devote as much time to the office as he. His time is quite largely devoted to his vast real estate holdings, which are located in different parts of the city. Being so situated he is at all times thoroughly posted on every improvement that is needed. He has always been a staunch Republican, which fact is so well known that comment at this time is unnecessary.

Encouraging reports come from all parts of his ward and there is no doubt that he will be nominated next Saturday by a handsome majority.

A BOOMERANG

Some People Seem to Be Hunting for Trouble.

Salem News Feb. 22. The East Liverpool Crisis, under the heading of "Mean Treatment," insinuates that a candidate from the southern side of the county has been discriminated against by Salem manufacturers, who are said to have refused him admission into their works for canvassing purposes, while a candidate from the north side for the same office was allowed free entrance to all the Liverpool potteries. The paper in question makes a great to-do over the matter, as though there was some underhanded arrangement to benefit one candidate at the expense of another, and that the manufacturers were in the scheme. There is doubtless little if any cause for complaint of this sort. Manufacturers in both Salem and East Liverpool have their rules regarding such matters, and the intentions as a rule being to treat all candidates alike. If there has been any departure at this time from this rule or custom—which is doubtful—the Salem candidates have nothing to do with it and would regret anything which smacked of partiality as much as anybody.

MAUTZ WITHDRAWS

And Throws His Support to the Laboring Man's Candidate.

To the Public: Having come to the conclusion that the interests of the small property owners of the East End are dependent on the election of a man who will represent their interests in council and realizing that I, as a candidate, will only complicate matters in my ward, I respectfully withdraw as a candidate for the nomination.

While I have all the sympathy of the working men at heart I feel that Mr. James Jameson, being a member of a potters' local and a staunch supporter of all union labor, is in a position to more freely ask the support of this contingent, and for this reason I, while thanking all my friends for their promised support, ask them to transfer their preference to Mr. Jameson, who is a man capable of filling the position and one who will see to it that the interests of the laboring people is first of importance.

AN UNUSUAL LAWSUIT

Colored Girl Sues a Business Firm to Get $6.75 Paid on a Sacque.

Gertie Freeman, a young colored girl employed at Walsh's hotel, is the plaintiff in an action against Wasbutsky Bros., which was set for a hearing in Justice McCarron's court yesterday afternoon.

The girl claimed she had paid $6.75 as part payment for a sacque, with the understanding that in case it did not fit she was to get her money back. She further alleged that when she finally got the garment it was unsatisfactory, and when she returned it she was refused the money she had paid. She brought suit to get the $6.75.

At the hour set for trial the defendants failed to appear, and the 'squire rendered judgment for the plaintiff for the amount asked. It is understood the case will be appealed to common pleas court and friends of the girl have promised to lend her financial assistance.

A BOOMERANG

Some People Seem to Be Hunting for Trouble.

Salem News Feb. 22.

The East Liverpool Crisis, under the heading of "Mean Treatment," insinuates that a candidate from the southern side of the county has been discriminated against by Salem manufacturers, who are said to have refused him admission into their works for canvassing purposes, while a candidate from the north side for the same office was allowed free entrance to all the Liverpool potteries. The paper in question makes a great deal over the matter, as though there was some underhanded arrangement to benefit one candidate at the expense of another, and that the manufacturers were in the scheme. There is doubtless little if any cause for complaint of this sort. Manufacturers in both Salem and East Liverpool have their rules regarding such matters, and the intentions as a rule being to treat all candidates alike. If there has been any departure at this time from this rule or custom—which is doubtful—the Salem candidates have nothing to do with it and would regret anything which smacked of partiality as much as anybody.

MAUTZ WITHDRAWS

And Throws His Support to the Laboring Man's Candidate.

To the Public: Having come to the conclusion that the interests of the small property owners of the East End are dependent on the election of a man who will represent their interests in council and realizing that I, as a candidate, will only complicate matters in my ward, I respectfully withdraw as a candidate for the nomination.

While I have all the sympathy of the working men at heart I feel that Mr. James Jameson, being a member of a potters' local and a staunch supporter of all union labor, is in a position to more freely ask the support of this contingent, and for this reason I, while thanking all my friends for their promised support, ask them to transfer their preference to Mr. Jameson, who is a man capable of filling the position and one who will see to it that the interests of the laboring people is first of importance.

AN UNUSUAL LAWSUIT

Colored Girl Sues a Business Firm to Get $6.75 Paid on a Sacque.

Gertie Freeman, a young colored girl employed at Walsh's hotel, is the plaintiff in an action against Wasbutsky Bros., which was set for a hearing in Justice McCarron's court yesterday afternoon.

The girl claimed she had paid $6.75 as part payment for a sacque, with the understanding that in case it did not fit she was to get her money back. She further alleged that when she finally got the garment it was unsatisfactory, and when she returned it she was refused the money she had paid. She brought suit to get the $6.75.

At the hour set for trial the defendants failed to appear, and the 'quire rendered judgment for the plaintiff for the amount asked. It is understood the case will be appealed to common pleas court and friends of the girl have promised to lend her financial assistance.

A BUSINESS MAN FOR CITY COUNCIL

ELECTION OF GEORGE PEACH PRACTICALLY CONCEDED.

One of the Best Councilmen the City Has Ever Had Will Again Be a Member.

As the day of the Republican primary election draws near the friends of the several candidates aspiring to the different offices to be filled take more than ordinary interest in the race.

The nomination of some of the candidates is conceded, particularly George Peach, candidate for council from the Third ward. Mr. Peach, as everybody knows, is one of the best councilmen the city has ever had. His record as a member of the city's legislative body is one of which not only the people of the Third ward are proud, but the entire city as well. During the time he was a member of council many grave questions frequently arose, questions that were of vital importance to the taxpayers of the city, many of them calling for the expenditure of the people's money in large sums, yet not one of them was ever sanctioned or voted for by Mr. Peach unless it was for the best interests of the city. His record is an open book. He is a capable official, because he is a business man of more than ordinary ability. There is perhaps no candidate so situated that he can devote as much time to the office as he. His time is quite largely devoted to his vast real estate holdings, which are located in different parts of the city. Being so situated he is at all times thoroughly posted on every improvement that is needed. He has always been a staunch Republican, which fact is so well known that comment at this time is unnecessary.

Encouraging reports come from all parts of his ward and there is no doubt that he will be nominated next Saturday by a handsome majority.

POTTERS OFFER A PROTEST AGAINST PROPOSED TAXES

East Liverpool Delegation In Columbus Conferring With Legislators.

BURDEN OF THE COMPLAINT

Is That the Proposed Legislation Is Unfair to Their Interest.

THE FARMERS ARE HEARD FROM

In Numerous Petitions Against Any Change in the Game Law—Labor Measures And Other Bills Now Under Consideration.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, February 25.—Messrs. W. L. Smith, of the D. E. McNicol Pottery company; H. N. Harker, of the Harker Pottery company, and J. J. Purinton, of the United States Pottery company, acting as the representatives of the potting interests of East Liverpool and Wellsville, arrived here yesterday to protest against the passage of the Willis administration bill, which seeks to impose a tax of one-tenth of 1 per cent on the capital stock of Ohio corporations.

The gentlemen met the members of the Columbiana county delegation and made known to them the wishes of the interests they represented. They also met a number of other influential members of the legislature, with whom they discussed the bill. Senator Connell and Representatives Buell and Crist went over the situation carefully with the East Liverpool gentlemen and each one assured them that their action would be in accordance with the interests of their constituents. This is tantamount to a promise not to support the bill in its present form.

An avalanche of protests against the Willis bill from various places in Columbiana county poured in on Monday, most of them from East Liverpool, Salem and Wellsville. The burden of the complaint of the East Liverpool delegation was that the bill was an unfair discrimination against incorporated companies in favor of partnerships and individuals, and that it was class legislation. They made it plain that the East Liverpool manufacturers were quite willing to pay their proportion of the taxes, but were strongly opposed to standing for more than their share. Messrs. Smith, Harker and Purinton returned home at midnight.

Mr. Crist occupied the floor of the house for some time yesterday afternoon. He introduced petitions galore from the farmers of Columbiana county, who want no change in the game law. He also offered a petition with 40 signatures opposing the abandonment of the canal system. The Crist bill authorizing the residents of St. Clair township to improve the Calcutta road from Calcutta south to Liverpool township will probably go on the house calendar this week.

A measure which will have the active support of labor unions was one introduced on Monday afternoon by Mr. Kinney, of Cuyahoga county, amending the present lien laws so that in all cases claims of laborers and mechanics shall have preference over all other claims. The same interests which will support this bill will fight another introduced by Senator Wirt, of Youngstown, on Monday afternoon, which seeks to give the governor authority to appoint special policemen for service at plants of corporations. This bill was introduced at the behest of a number of large corporations, who would avail themselves of its provisions in case of a strike or other trouble at their plants.

Messrs. Buell and Crist, it is known positively, will vote for the Beal option bill, which is scheduled to come up in the house on Wednesday. The state liquor league has no hope of defeating the bill in the house. In fact, they doubt very much whether they can prevent its passage in the senate, and from the present outlook the chances of the measure becoming a law seem favorable.

THIEVES WORKING WITH DILIGENCE

Wholesale Thefts of Lead Pipe Reported at Police Headquarters.

ARRESTS ARE TO FOLLOW

Chief Thompson on the Track of Guilty Parties—Plumbers And Others Have Been the Victims of the Crooks—Plunder Recovered.

Chief Thompson is on the track of a gang of thieves accused of the wholesale stealing of lead pipe and who are also believed to have been the parties who have been robbing hen houses the past few weeks.

Various reports of thefts of lead pipe have come to police headquarters the past few days and the chief has been quietly working on a clue which, he believes, will result in the arrest of several parties.

A message was received at the city hall this morning from a Northside resident, stating that a large quantity of pipe had been stolen from his premises and the chief immediately began an investigation. He had secured a clue at noon today which, it is expected, will lead to arrests by this evening.

Several of the local plumbers have reported the loss of lead pipe, and while most of the stolen property has been recovered by the officers, it has thus far been impossible to secure sufficient evidence against the thieves to occasion their arrest.

Chief Thompson has, however, been working diligently in an effort to get the needed evidence, and as a result of his efforts, it is expected that no less than five alleged thieves will be arrested.

SUBSTITUTE SOUGHT

Miss McDowell, the Deaconess, Cannot Return Because of Mother's Illness.

He has learned from that institution that it can send a substitute to this city by May 1.

The matter is under consideration.

JACK THE PEEPER IS A NUISANCE

Residents of Jefferson Street Propose to Go Gunning For Him.

THREE SUCCESSIVE NIGHTS

He Has Annoyed People, Causing Terror Among the Women of the Neighborhood—People Much Excited Over His Escapades.

Not satisfied with attending to his own business, a "Jack the Peeper" has made his appearance on Jefferson street for three nights in succession. If he is found by the parties who are now lying in wait for him he may be given the opportunity of writing an article for a newspaper upon the subject of "How It Feels to Be Shot."

A short, heavy set individual wearing a light overcoat has been annoying residents of Jefferson street on three successive evenings in such a manner that patience has ceased to be a virtue. Now he is being watched for. Several evenings ago some family washing was hanging in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. "Con" Kennedy on lower Jefferson street and it was stolen. This was one week ago last Saturday evening. Last Thursday evening an individual was seen walking about the Kennedy residence again. When he found that he was discovered he made a hasty exit and was not seen in that locality again that night. On Friday evening he was noticed about the home of John Owen, and after being discovered by a passerby peeping into the windows of this home he ran up Jefferson street and was soon lost from view.

The same person was seen Saturday evening about the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Witherow on Jefferson street. Mr. Witherow had gone up town and his wife was left at home alone. Frequently neighbors of this family come to their house, open the kitchen door without knocking, and when a knock was heard at the kitchen door of this home Saturday evening Mrs. Witherow said "Come in." The door was partially opened and the stranger peeped in, but that was all. He lost no time in making his escape and was not seen any more in that part of town that evening.

It is also said that this individual has on frequent occasions been seen prowling about the residence of Timothy Nolan, in Center alley. The residents of that part of town have been worked up to such a state of excitement that the intruder is likely to be met with a fusillade of bullets if encountered there again.

One resident of Jefferson street has said he recognized the "peeper" and believes him to be a man who resides out California hollow. The matter is now being investigated and police developments may be expected.

BOY SERIOUSLY WOUNDED WHILE PLAYING WILD WEST

Companion Shouted "Hands Up" and Albert Gilchrist Fell Bleeding.

TEETH AND JAW BROKEN

And a 32-Caliber Bullet Lodged In the Back of His Neck.

IT WAS ALL AN ACCIDENT

According to the Statement of the Boy Who Did the Shooting—Serious Result of Playing at Dangerous Games in a Shanty.

Unfortunate indeed was the accidental shooting of Albert Gilchrist, in a small shanty in the rear of 103 Lincoln avenue, yesterday, by a revolver of 32 caliber in the hands of James Myler, a son of John Myler, Sr., of Basil avenue.

Gilchrist is 15 years old and is a son of J. W. Gilchrist, an employee of the Croxall Pottery company, of Second street. He is a student in room 12 in the Central school building, and after school hours he was employed by the Yates Novelty company, in the Diamond. Last evening he went to a small shanty in Dewdrop alley, in which he and a number of other small boys had been in the habit of assembling after school and playing "Wild West" and other such daring games. In all probability no more such games will be played, for a week at least.

There were a number of youths in the shanty yesterday afternoon, sitting about the place on stools and on the floor. Young Gilchrist, according to a statement made by John Myler, had finished wiping a revolver and laid it on the floor near him. Myler picked up the revolver, shouting as he did so, "Hands up!" Scarcely were the words out of his mouth when the revolver accidentally exploded, the ball striking young Gilchrist in the right cheek, just at the base of the nose. The ball in its flight broke several teeth and a portion of the lower jaw bone and lodged in the back of the neck.

All the boys in the shanty were thoroughly frightened and with young Gilchrist ran into the alley. Gilchrist kept running and went to the office of Dr. Bailey, but he was not in. He was bleeding profusely and continued to run through the Diamond and to the office of Dr. W. A. Hobbs. He met the physician just as he was about to answer another call. Gilchrist was taken into the office and placed under the influence of chloroform and an attempt was made to locate the bullet. After probing for almost an hour without locating the ball, the boy was taken to the home of his parents on Wall street, where he passed a favorable night.

John Myler, who held the gun when it was discharged, said last evening: "I am not sure who owned the revolver, but I think it belonged to Gilchrist. It was an old one. A number of boys frequently met in the shanty after school, but this is the first time any mishap has occurred."

It was stated last evening that one of the boys who frequented the shanty went into a local hardware store earlier in the afternoon, asked to see revolver cases and exhibited the revolver which played such an important part in the affair. Not being able to purchase a case the boy returned to the shanty and the shooting occurred shortly afterward.

THE RIVER RISING

Word of the Breaking Up of the Ice Above Is Soon Expected.

Word is expected this afternoon by Wharfmaster Gus Martindill relative to the breaking of the gorge in the Allegheny river. A small amount of ice is passing the city, coming from the Monongahela.

The Ohio river at this port is rising at the rate of about two inches an hour and a rise of over two feet has occurred since yesterday morning.

A continued rise is anticipated by local rivermen on account of moderating weather. If there is no heavy rain the ice is expected to go out quietly.

WANTS A MATCH

Lutz, of Beaver Falls, Desires to Wrestle With Conkle Here.

Lawrence Lutz, the all-around athlete of Beaver Falls, has been in the city since yesterday and hopes to be successful in making a match with Charles Conkle, of East Palestine, for a wrestling bout to be held in this city.

Conkle and Lutz had a go in East Palestine last May, in which Conkle got the decision through a fluke. Lutz is confident that he can beat the East Palestine man and is here for the purpose of arranging for the meeting.

The Beaver Falls athlete is well known in this city, having fought several battles before the East Liverpool Athletic club in the past few years. He has several of the local sporting men behind him and is apparently in earnest. A forfeit will be posted with some local man, and if it is covered within a reasonable time, the preliminaries can be arranged at once.

PLEASANTLY LOCATED

Rev. Charles W. Swan And Wife at Shreve Have East Liverpool Mementoes.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles W. Swan, who resided in the East End the greater part of last year, are now pleasantly located in the Presbyterian parsonage at Shreve. A very pleasant feature of their getting settled in their new home was the unpacking of a barrel containing a beautiful toilet set from one of the members of the Second Presbyterian church, of East Liverpool; also a large cask of dishes, a gift from members of the Second Presbyterian church in the East End. Mr. and Mrs. Swan will thus be continually reminded of their friends in East Liverpool.

The people of the Shreve Presbyterian church gave a very pleasant surprise and donation party at the parsonage recently. Mr. Swan has just closed a series of meetings which were largely attended.

SEVERAL CONVERTS

Gained at the Revival Services at the First M. E. Church Last Night.

The First M. E. church revival services continue to attract large and interested congregations. Dr. Crawford last night preached on the "Marriage Supper of Christ." The sermon was an earnest appeal to the people to accept Christ.

Several persons professed conversion, while many others signified a desire for prayers. There will be services tonight at the usual hour.

SPECIAL SERVICES

Begun at the First U. P. Church, Dr. Clark, of Jefferson, Preaching.

Special services are being held at the First U. P. church this week. Dr. W. H. Clark, of Jefferson, preached last night, taking as his subject, "God's Mindfulness of Man." The sermon was very strong and was appreciated by a large audience.

Dr. Clark will be present at all the meetings this week. An invitation is extended to the public to be present at these meetings.

MOTHERLESS CHILDREN

Said to Be Staying at a Disreputable Place—Investigation Being Made.

Humane Officer James Miller received a letter from a Cleveland woman this morning requesting him to look after two children belonging to Louis Hutton, whose wife died about a year ago. The writer alleges that the children are at present being kept in a disreputable resort and asks the humane officer to have them sent to a home where they can be properly raised. An investigation is being made.

EAST END

SIX-MINUTE SCHEDULE

ON STREET RAILWAY BETWEEN EAST END AND DIAMOND.

Additional Improvements on the Line Will Make the Change Possible Soon.

Desiring to further accommodate its patrons in the East End and others who reside in the city proper and are employed in the East End, the officials of the East Liverpool Railway company have decided to lessen the time of cars between the Diamond and the East End loop.

The announcement was made this morning by Mr. Healy that a six-minute schedule would be put in effect within a short time, and as soon as the weather permitted additional switches would be placed between the East End and Diamond. One of these switches will be located in the vicinity of the Laughlin pottery or thereabouts, while the other will be located between the power house and Mulberry street, probably at a point just east of the Ralston crossing trestle. Of course there will not be a six-minute schedule on this part of the line all day, the extra cars being placed on the road during the busy hours, both morning and evening.

It was the intention of the company to make this improvement in the service last fall, but as the power failed the change could not be made. After the new schedule is started there will be no double headers operated on the road, as was the case last summer. The new switches that will be laid have been delivered at the power house, and as soon as the weather moderates they will be laid. There will be no change in the schedule between this city and Wellsville, a 12-minute schedule continuing in force.

Everything is in readiness to complete the extension of this road to Smith's Ferry, the cold weather holding back this improvement. All the rails and ties for this extension have been delivered and it is presumed that work on the extension will commence early in April and that cars will be running to the Ferry not later than June.

FUNERAL OF O. P. CANTON

Man Killed on the Street Railway Buried in West Virginia Today.

A special car of the East Liverpool Railway company on Saturday evening was waiting at the East End station to take Miss Marie Canton, of Pittsburgh, to the home of her father in the Klondike upon the arrival of 41 from Pittsburgh.

Yesterday morning another special car was sent to the East End in which the remains of the late Oliver P. Canton were placed, and with the relatives and immediate friends of the family started for Wellsville, whence the funeral party left for Weston, Lewis county, W. Va., where interment was made today, this being the home of the deceased before he came to the East End.

PHENOMENAL SUCCESS

Attends the Revival Meetings at the Erie Street M. E. Church.

Another interesting revival service was held last evening at the Erie street M. E. church, the attendance being very large for Monday night. There were 14 persons at the altar and 10 conversions were reported. During the present month over 30 persons have united with the church as a result of these meetings.

Rev. George W. Orcutt said this morning that it could not be told when the meetings would close.

Street Railway Force Short.

Several employees of the East Liverpool Railway company are ill and all available extra men are being employed. Some of the day men are compelled to work extra runs at night. Conductor McDonald is ill with fever at the home of Mrs. Clarke and Motorman Boyce is also ill with fever at his home at Wellsville. Motorman Henry Moore, who has been confined to his home on Fifth street for several weeks, is recovering rapidly.

Another Good Meeting.

The meeting at the Second Presbyterian church last evening was well attended. Rev. J. R. Hosack preached a powerful and interesting sermon, and the music was fine. Two new members were taken into the church. Services will again be conducted this evening by Rev. Mr. Hosack.

Purchased a Property.

W. H. Patterson, of Pennsylvania avenue, yesterday closed the deal for the purchase of the Reark property on Mulberry street. The consideration is said to have been $1,800.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

A meeting of the Ladies' Missionary society of the Second Presbyterian church will be held one week from next Thursday, when officers will be elected.

Word was received yesterday afternoon of the serious illness of Mrs. Hulme, at her home at Sebring. She is a daughter of Mrs. Hamilton, of Mulberry street, and has been suffering from blood poisoning.

Justice L. W. Carman this morning received word from Pittsburgh that his daughter, Miss Maude Carman, who has been seriously ill at the home of Rev. R. L. McKee, of Liberty avenue, is much improved and her early recovery is assured.

Mrs. Mary E. Laughlin is ill with typhoid fever at her home on Pennsylvania avenue.

Helen, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malvern, of Helena, is ill with diphtheria. Last week the child was suffering with measles, which terminated in diphtheria yesterday.

The Senior Mechanics will hold an important meeting in their hall on Mulberry street Thursday evening.

FIFTH WARD VOTERS

PLAIN TALK TO THEM FROM COUNCILMAN R. J. MARSHALL.

His Motto Is to Take Good Care of the Ward's Interests, Regardless of Those Who Object.

To the Voters of the Fifth Ward.

Gentlemen—I desire to call your attention to the fact that the saloonkeepers, more particularly the ones who run dives and gambling places, and also the street railway company, have decided that I am an obnoxious councilman to their interests, and therefore that I must be defeated at any cost. Hence the withdrawal of Mautz and the bespeaking of his support for one of my opponents whom the two forces have centered on.

My crime against the street railway company has been to insist on their giving decent service to their patrons; to insist on their running the cars over the Klondike extension and the 12-minute schedule. I have always been a friend of the boys on the line when they asked for a square deal at the hands of the company. In fact, as George Anderson says: "He has made our company spend hundreds of dollars they wouldn't have had to spend if it had not been for him, and we are going to beat him."

With all that we are not getting the service we should have, and I promise to keep on kicking until we do providing you again repose confidence in me.

My crime against the saloon—or, more particularly, the divekeeper—is familiar to all and was the drafting of the screen ordinances which council passed.

Now, gentlemen, from such a source and with the above named "crimes" to be avenged, you can look for all sorts of tales. But, let me tell you it will not be for the benefit of the Fifth ward that they will be told, but to get rid of a councilman who insists, first, on common decency, and second, that the street railway company shall live up to its franchise.

I, therefore, ask you to be on the alert, those of you, who wish the East End to go forward. And if you choose to repose confidence in me again, I will do in the future as I have done in the past—take good care of the Fifth ward. There are many, many things that we need, and depend upon it, I know what they are.

Yours,
R. J. MARSHALL.

NO IMPORTANT MOVEMENT,

Except in a Few Stocks of Smaller Railroads, in Stock Market, Monday.

New York, Feb. 25.—The stock market sank back into the professional traders' hands Monday and there was no important movement except in a few stocks of smaller railroads not allied to any of the great systems and in some minor industrials. The declines established for American stocks in London since the close here on Friday afternoon had to be faced at the opening. This caused a lower level at first than on last Friday, but prices were at no time down  $\frac{1}{4}$  the London parity, and they soon began to recover, in spite of the selling on arbitrage on London account at the advance. The confidence that the supreme court would refuse jurisdiction in Minnesota's suit against the Northern Securities company, which has been firmly held in Wall street for three weeks, was unimpaired Monday morning, and the traders did some of their buying on that basis. The announcement of the decision by the court failed to attract any outside demand and the efforts of the traders to take their profits caused a reaction in the market and an easy closing. The decision of the administration to push the case against the Northern Securities company deprived the other suit of much of its importance, but the fact remains that one possible course of procedure against the company is closed by this decision, and a step thus achieved toward the establishment of the company's status. It is generally felt that all possible courses of procedure will have to be met in the same way. Amalgamated Copper was affected by the reported sale to it of a mine and the removal of threatened litigation. Colorado and Southern was heavily bought, with an advance of over a point on reports of a transfer of control. An upward movement of a number of low priced minor railroad stocks had no other apparent cause than sympathy with this movement in Colorado and Southern. Tennessee Coal was a feature at an extreme advance of  $\frac{3}{4}$  on rumors of a resumption of dividends. Dealings in Southern Pacific continued large, but the movement in the stock was small.

The bond market showed some degree of firmness, but business was not large, except in the Wabash debenture Bs. Total sales, par value, \$3,490,000. U. S. 3s, coupon, declined  $\frac{1}{4}$  and the regulars advanced  $\frac{1}{4}$  per cent on the last call.

HOW TO BE SUCCESSFUL.

Experiences of Some of Our Wealthiest Men—Good Health the Keynote.

Success does not follow ill health; on the contrary, it takes good health to make one successful. A good appetite, ability to sleep soundly all night long, and arise feeling rested and refreshed, with a body that has no pains or aches, and a clear brain, full of vim, ideas and insight into business, is what make success. The Vanderbilts, Goulds, Astors, Havemeyers, and a long list of others that we could name, attribute their wealth and success in business to long hours and hard work, which were made possible by good health. Bad health is the cause of more failures in business than anything else. "Blood Wine" keeps the health good. It cleanses every particle of blood that flows through your veins. It abstracts the impurities and germs, forces them out of the body, and leaves only the pure, rich blood, which feeds the weakened tissues, and keeps one in good health. "Blood Wine" will give you a clear brain, so that you can think, reason, plan, and succeed. It enables you to grasp a situation quickly, to understand clearly. It takes every ache and pain out of your system, and transforms every organ of your body to its normal healthy condition. Blood Wine contains no wine or opiates, simply medicines of wonderful curative characteristics that never disappoint.

In the business world "Blood Wine" is a great favorite with both men and women. Storekeepers, clerks, stenographers, bookkeepers, lawyers, clergymen, and all requiring a powerful agent to clear the brain, and aid them in business, take it.

Mrs. Annie Morgan of Waterville, Me., says: "I think it is my duty to let you know what benefit I have derived from taking your 'Blood Wine.' I have taken one bottle and a half, and feel wonderfully better. My appetite is improved; I do not suffer nearly so much, for I was all run down and felt tired all the time, and my brain seemed clouded. Your 'Blood Wine' has benefited me so much that I feel grateful to have found it, and I can heartily recommend it to any one who is suffering from loss of appetite, nervousness, and all trouble arising from poor digestion, overwork, and a run-down condition in general." "Blood Wine" costs fifty cents a bottle, but you can sample it free of charge at Will Reed's and Hodson's drug-stores.

THE YACHT LAUNCHED

Today Miss Roosevelt Cut Rope
Which Released the Emperor's New Vessel.

PRESIDENT AND PRINCE THERE.

Distinguished Assemblage Present.
Brilliant Dinner at White House
Last Night—Prince Visited Both
Houses of Congress Yesterday.

New York, Feb. 25.—The Meteor, the German emperor's yacht, was launched at 10 o'clock this morning, Miss Alice Roosevelt, daughter of the president, cutting the rope, which released the yacht, with a silver hatchet.

Prince Henry, President and Mrs. Roosevelt, and a distinguished assemblage were present.

Washington Feb. 25.—The dinner to Prince Henry by President Roosevelt, at the White House last night closed the honors bestowed on the royal visitor by official Washington yesterday.

During the dinner the president proposed the health of the German emperor and the German people, saying:

"We admire their great past and great present and we wish them all possible success in the future. May the bonds of friendship between the two people ever grow stronger."

The president also proposed the health of our guest, Prince Henry, of Prussia, in these words:

"In the name of the American people I greet you and extend you our warmest welcome and the assurance of our heartiest good will."

The name of Senator Martin, of Virginia, was originally on the list of those given out as guests at the dinner, but he declined the invitation.

Left For the Launching.

Following the toast of the president to the German emperor, Prince Henry arose and, addressing himself to the president, proposed a toast to himself and the people of the United States, accompanying it with an expression of good will and a hope for the continuation of friendly relations between the German and American nations. Then followed Mr. Roosevelt's toast to Prince Henry.

After the dinner the guests repaired to the parlors, where for an hour or more they remained in social conversation. The prince chatted freely with the company, many of whom he had met during the day. At 10:40 the party dispersed, the Prince leaving directly for the railroad station, where his special train awaited him. A troop of cavalry and a squadron of mounted and bicycle policemen acted as escort to the station and saw him safely aboard the train, which left at midnight for New York city.

President Roosevelt and party left Washington shortly before midnight last night for New York to witness the launching today of the yacht Meteor, built for the emperor of Germany. Accompanying the president were Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Alice Roosevelt, Secretary Root, Mrs. Root, Miss Root, Secretary Hitchcock, Commander and Mrs. Cowles, Senators Lodge and Spooner, Representative Littauer, Dr. Pickersell, Secretary Loeb, Mr. Collin Studds and a stenographer. The president's train pulled out of the station a few minutes before the one occupied by the prince and his escort.

Prince Visited Both Houses.

The prince not only saw the houses of the American parliament at work yesterday, but in the senate he witnessed one of those rare and intensely dramatic moments which come in that body occasionally at the conclusion of a great debate.

Heart Disease

retards the circulation, weakens the stomach, deranges digestion, pollutes the blood, destroys the nervous force and saps the vitality of the whole system. It causes pains in the side, palpitation, shortness of breath, smothering, dropsical swellings, sinking spells, and frequently ends all suffering in sudden death. Why tempt death when a cure is within easy reach?

"My head would get so hot it seemed to be burning up, while my feet were like ice. My limbs would swell and get numb. I had to sit in a chair day and night for months and my heart throbbed and pained me terribly. After using three bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I could do a good day's work."

Livingston the Hero Of Louisiana Purchase

By Congressman DE ALVA S. ALEXANDER

THE Louisiana Purchase exposition will bring into view the magnificent work of a magnificent New Yorker, Robert R. Livingston, the ambassador to Paris at the time the purchase was made. The proposition was made by Napoleon or his minister to Mr. Livingston, who at once grasped at the chance of making the purchase. WHEN HE REPORTED IT TO THOMAS JEFFERSON, MR. JEFFERSON REPLIED THAT WE HAD NO CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY TO MAKE THAT PURCHASE. Mr. Livingston, however, completed it, and then, while President Jefferson was sending out word to his friends in the United States senate that it was beyond our constitutional power to make the purchase and that they should look askance upon the proposition, Robert R. Livingston sent a confidential note to the president stating that unless the purchase was ratified at once Napoleon would change his mind.

And then President Jefferson wrote to his friends in the senate, saying, "Say nothing about the constitutionality of the purchase, but confirm the treaty." That is the story that will be brought out in golden letters from the Golden Gate to Maine, that this country may see that the man behind the throne, THE MAN WITH THE NERVE AND THE POWER TO MAKE THAT PURCHASE, WAS NOT THOMAS JEFFERSON, the strict constructionist of the constitution, but that it was Robert R. Livingston, one of the greatest and most noted of New York's famous statesmen. I do not wish to take from Jefferson's laurels, but I believe that the time has come when all America should recognize the fact that the man to whom we owe the honor and the debt and the gratitude of making that purchase was Robert R. Livingston of New York and not Thomas Jefferson of Virginia.

nessed one of those rare and intensely dramatic moments which come in that body occasionally at the conclusion of a great debate. The prince and his party, in carriages, escorted by a troop of cavalry, and flanked on either side by a bicycle platoon of police, arrived at the eastern entrance of the capitol at 4 o'clock, exactly on schedule time. Prince Henry no longer wore the brilliant uniform and plumed chapeau in which he had appeared earlier in the day. He was attired in the simple dark blue fatigue uniform of the German admiral and wore the flat German naval cap of his rank. The members of his suite wore fatigue uniforms, and the German ambassador had exchanged his court dress for a conventional frock suit. In the matter of gold lace and braid, General Corbin and Admiral Evans, still in the splendor of full dress uniforms, far outshone the prince and his staff. The party was met at the great bronze doors leading into the rotunda by a committee from the house, consisting of Mr. Hitt, of Illinois; Mr. Dinsmore, of Arkansas, and General Grosvenor, of Ohio, chairman of the committee having the arrangements for the prince's reception in charge. Brief cordial greetings having been exchanged, the prince and his party, under the protection of a half hundred police, were conveyed through solid walls of people packed in the rotunda and statutory hall to the room of Speaker Henderson, in the rear of the house lobby. Here the speaker, who was awaiting him, greeted the prince with a warm handshake as Mr. Hitt presented "his royal highness."

General Henderson invited the prince to be seated, while the German ambassador made the other introductions and then in a few words formally welcomed him. "Your royal highness," he said, turning to the prince, who instantly arose, "it gives me very sincere pleasure, in behalf of the United States house of representatives, to greet you with a cordial and heartfelt welcome, but it gives me all the greater pleasure, as you come representing in an eminent degree that friendly feeling which exists between your nation and ours, and representing also the cordial feeling of the illustrious head of the German empire. When you are ready to go from here, we have made suitable provision for your accommodation in the gallery, so that you can see the house of representatives in session. When you have remained there a length of time agreeable to you, a committee, consisting of Mr. Hitt, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs; Mr. Dinsmore, also of that committee, and General Grosvenor, chairman of the committee on arrangements, will consult your pleasure as to what further may be gratifying to you while at this end of the capitol."

Prince Thanked the Speaker.

The prince thanked the speaker for his courtesy, and without further ceremony the party proceeded to the gallery of the house, walking up the marble stairs instead of using the elevator. His appearance at the door of the gallery caused an enthusiastic demonstration. No sooner had his tall, graceful figure been framed in the doorway when a spontaneous outburst of applause swept the floor and gallery. The prince paused, smiled through his blonde beard, and acknowledged the greetings with a slight bow. Then advancing, with the German ambassador and Mr. Hitt on either side, he descended to the place reserved for him in the front row of the gallery. Instantly every eye was upon him. He seemed perfectly oblivious of the fact that he was on exhibition at close range. Mr. Gilbert, of Kentucky, was addressing the house at the time on the Philippine question, although the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill was under consideration. Prince Henry seemed interested, listening attentively for several minutes to what Mr. Gilbert had to say and appearing much pleased at the hearty applause which followed the statement of the Kentucky member that the "Anglo-Saxon and German races are one."

Mr. Sims, of Tennessee, secured the floor after Mr. Gilbert had concluded. The party remained about 10 minutes in the gallery and then descended to the ways and means committee room, where a reception was held. The demonstration as the prince left the gallery was even more enthusiastic than when he entered. A number of members rose to their feet and cheered. The house at once adjourned to afford the members an opportunity to meet the royal visitor personally. The reception was very informal. The members formed in line and were presented by Mr. Hitt.

Prince Interested In Grow.

Mr. Williams, of Mississippi, and Mr. Wachter, of Maryland, exchanged a few remarks with the prince in German. Mr. Grow, of Pennsylvania, the venerable ex-speaker, was one of those in whom the prince showed a special interest, after he had been informed by Mr. Hitt that the Pennsylvanian had presided over the house 50 years ago. Just as the reception, which lasted scarcely more than 10 minutes, was concluded, the senate committee, consisting of Senators Culbom, of Illinois; Lodge, of Massachusetts, and Morgan, of Alabama, appeared and after being presented escorted the prince and his party to the senate. He was escorted to the richly gilded chamber of the vice president, and there Senator Frye, of Maine, the president pro tem of the senate, greeted him and the members of his suite. No formal remarks were made on either side. The members of the prince's party were escorted by General Corbin to the diplomatic gallery, but Prince Henry and Ambassador Von Holleben were ushered directly into the senate chamber.

The youthful senator from Texas, Mr. Bailey, was hotly engaged with several of the older leaders on the Republican side over the right of the two senators from South Carolina, who are in contempt of the senate, to vote on the Philippine bill. The excitement at the moment was so great that even the entrance of a foreign prince, unwonted as it was, could hardly divert attention from the great debate which was in progress. Senator Frye, with the prince at his side, mounted the rostrum and invited him to be seated. The senators on the floor and the spectators in the galleries had arisen at his appearance, but there was no audible demonstration. He took a seat by the side of the president pro tem and Senator Frye resumed the gavel, which he had yielded to Senator Hoar, and debate proceeded.

Engrossed In Scene In Senate.

For fully 20 minutes the prince sat completely engrossed by the scene before him. At last Ambassador Von Holleben, who sat below him at the clerk's desk, suggested it was time to go, whereupon the prince thanked Senator Frye and arose. Senator Frye interrupted the senate with a rap of his gavel. The senators immediately stood up, while the people in the galleries craned their necks. Then as the prince ascended the steps and stood for an instant bowing his acknowledgments ere he took his departure the galleries broke into applause.

Later the prince and suite were driven away.

The prince and party reached Washington at 10:20 yesterday morning. Secretary Hay, Secretary Lusk, Assistant Secretary of State Pearce, who had immediate charge of the arrangements at the depot, and out Quad and two other attaches from the German embassy, met the train. Police, national guard and naval and army contingents were used in guarding the station, the route to be traversed and also as escort.

The prince and party were driven to the White House, where the prince called upon the president.

Later the president returned the call at the German embassy.

One of the most brilliant functions of the day was at 2 p. m., when Prince Henry received at the German embassy the members of the diplomatic corps, including the ambassadors and ministers, accompanied by their staffs of government, naval and civil attaches, all in full uniform. It was the same brilliant assemblage that is seen at the White House on New Year's day to give greetings to the president. Turks in red fez, Russians in tall shakos, Chinese in rich oriental silks. But yesterday there was added brilliancy in the showy uniforms of the imperial receiving party.

Rev. Dr. Steiner, of Sandusky, in order to learn more about the everyday life of the people of his town, put in a short time as a newspaper reporter. He gathered some news and some ideas also. One of the latter he thus expressed: "All the people who cry about the unreliability of the newspaper would howl still more if the newspaper printed the truth." By this he probably means that a decided sensation would be caused should any newspaper attempt to tell all it knows to be true. This would certainly be the case. The greatest desire of every newspaper is to print correct information. Necessarily the public is called upon to supply much of the data. That it is not always accurate is not surprising. Let a dozen people, eye-witnesses to a tragedy or a fire, tell their story in court, and see how they will differ as to details, though every one may be doing his best to tell the exact truth. The man who purposely misstates things in order to deceive a reporter is sometimes encountered, but the newspaper men steer clear of him as far as possible. In Pennsylvania they have a law to punish him, and it is a just and proper law. As for stirring up trouble, which the newspapers are sometimes accused of doing, hundreds of items are suppressed to avoid that very result; hundreds of what the newspaper men style "good stories" never see the light of day, for the simple reason that it is better for all concerned that they should never be printed. Newspapers could sever family ties, ruin great men's reputations and work no end of harm to great interests by telling all they know. But they don't do it, because newspaper men have consciences and because they believe it is their duty to preserve and build up, rather than to tear down and destroy.

The National Civic Federation, one object of which is to prevent strikes, has received the cordial endorsement of numerous labor organizations. President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, says that while it will not avert all strikes, it will reduce them materially, and minimize the possibility of long drawn-out struggles, in which vast sums of money are lost both to the employers and their men.

The East End is fast gaining recognition as one of the busiest sections of the city. The East Liverpool Railway company has now decided that the people of this section are entitled to cars more frequently. The change is one that will be appreciated.

The senate will have to make a precedent in the matter of punishing Tillman and McLaurin. The best way to settle the matter would be to make it impossible for them to repeat the offense.

A revolver as a plaything came frightfully near causing the death of an East Liverpool boy yesterday. Too vigorous measures cannot be taken to check the weapon-carrying habit among old and young.

President Roosevelt has withdrawn a dinner invitation to Senator Tillman. He continues to treat Booker T. Washington with distinguished consideration, more honor to him.

It is suggested that the South Carolinians who sent Tillman to the senate ought to be punished, too. If he goes home and lives among them the punishment will be severe enough.

It is stated in a Columbus newspaper that the object of Bryan's visit to that city was "to settle the fate of the party." Looks as if he had settled it effectually in 1900.

Congressman Wheeler assumes all responsibility for his Prince Henry speech. He will find nobody who wants to share responsibility with him.

The prince is showing himself such a good fellow that he would probably be popular even if his brother were not the kaiser.

Evidence abounds that the throne which the young King of Spain is soon to ascend is decidedly wobbly.

The oftener Bryan visits Ohio the better for the Republican party.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Rachel Mann.

Mrs. Rachael Mann, of Wellsville, wife of Oliver Mann, an engineer on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh railroad, died yesterday at the home of her son, Perry, in Pittsburg, aged 60 years. Death was due to an attack of lung fever, resulting from grip. Mrs. Mann was born in Wales, and went to Wellsville when only three years of age, residing there ever since. She was a most amiable woman, one who made friends with everybody, and was a prominent member of the Evangelical church. Two sons, Perry, of Pittsburg, and Oscar, of Wellsville, survive; also one daughter, Mrs. J. F. Dell, of Wellsville. Mrs. Mary Michaels and Mrs. Joseph Davidson, of Wellsville, and Mrs. Anna Kenyon, of Verona, Pa., are sisters. Two brothers, John and William, of Wellsville, are also living. The body will reach Wellsville this afternoon, when the funeral arrangements will be made.

John Wesley De Vore.

At the age of 57 years, John Wesley DeVore, one of the most prominent and respected residents of Wellsville, died at 6 o'clock this morning at his home on Center street. Heart trouble was the cause of death. He was born in Carroll county, where, in 1867 he married Miss Sophia Allabaugh. In 1884 he moved to Wellsville and secured employment in the C. & P. shops as car builder. He held the same position until six months ago until sickness forced his resignation. Mr. DeVore was a member of the M. E. church, and was connected with the Masonic order. He served with the Eightieth O. V. I. and belonged to the Henry Cooper post, G. A. R. He was a prominent leader in political circles, and for several years filled the position of water works trustee. His wife survives, together with a daughter, Mrs. W. C. Henderson, of Wellsville, and a son, Brady, of Pittsburg. The arrangements for the funeral will be made this evening.

William Ballantine.

AT THE THEATER

The Keystone Dramatic company opened a week's engagement at the Grand last evening to a crowded house. "Home and Honor" was presented. The company is by far the best popular priced one that has appeared here this season. There was not a dull character in the production, each member of the cast displaying unusual ability. The scenic effects were pretty, and the specialties were good. This evening "Utah" will be presented for the first time in this city.

UNPROVOKED ASSAULT

Made on a Young Woman By an Italian at Steubenville.

Steubenville, February 25.—In the very heart of the city and on the principal thoroughfare, where hundreds of people pass every few moments, Canis Matasa, an Italian, aged 26, walked in a crowd of young girls who were conversing, and without a word of warning, struck Miss Winnie Geary, daughter of Michael Geary, of Prospect avenue, a blow, threw her to the ground and then attempted to choke her.

Such is the story of Miss Geary and her friends and several passersby who saw the Italian commit the assault.

What his intention was is not known, but in an affidavit filed with Mayor Means, Miss Geary charges him with assault with intent to kill.

POTTERY NEWS

One of the most pleasant socials ever held by Turners' and Handlers' local No. 10 was held in Maccabees' hall last evening. The business session lasted but a short time and the social commenced at 8 o'clock and did not end until 11:30. Luncheon was served at 10 o'clock and before that time a pleasing entertainment was presented. Music was furnished by Roe's orchestra and the Headley brothers gave a piano duet. A song, "The Sentinel Asleep," was rendered in a pleasing manner by Joseph Simpson. Leroy Orr, of No. 12, gave a German dialect recitation, entitled "Who Broke the Jigger, or the Mold Runner's Revenge." It was the hit of the evening.

The work of placing the machinery in the new Barborton pottery has been commenced under the supervision of Jean Jester. The task was commenced last Thursday, and this week several local men will be sent to that to assist in the work. Mr. Jester will remain in the employ of the company after the machinery is in place, acting as chief engineer. Most of the machinery has been delivered, and the plant may be in shape to start before June 1. The sagger room will be in readiness soon, and a force of sagger will be sent there as soon as this department is completed.

During the past few days a large force of men has been put to work remodeling the old electric light plant in Pink alley. The site will be occupied by the East Liverpool Sagger company. The engine to be used has been ordered and is expected to arrive this week. The foundation for the gas engine is finished, and bricklayers are now building flues in the sagger dry house. In the largest part of this building, which has been converted into a two story affair, on the second floor the pins and stilt will be made. It is the intention to begin work on the kilns this week, provided the weather continues favorable.

Henry Peterson, an apprentice presser, employed in one of the hill potteries, to whom a legacy was left recently, proposes to locate in New Jersey, near the seacoast, and one of the popular summer resorts. Peterson will start poultry farm and will make the trip to the east overland, taking the national pike. He has purchased two good road horses, and will stop at Fallston, where he will load his wagon with ware from the Fallston pottery, selling it along the route.

At a meeting of local No. 19, groind layers and gliders, held in Knights of Columbus hall last evening, the first nomination for convention delegates was made. Pressers' local No. 4 last evening opened nominations for convention delegates. There were 36 names presented, from which five delegates are to be selected. Jiggermen's local meets tonight to open nominations.

The statement has been made that work on the new pottery to be erected at Sebring will be commenced as soon as the weather permits. This will likely be a six kiln plant. So far no plans have been drawn for the new factory, but this will be a matter to be taken up after all other details are completed.

George Hulme, one of the best known young pottery workers in the city, has taken a position as turner at the New Castle pottery. He spent Sunday in this city visiting relatives, and returned to New Castle yesterday. He expects to remove his family to New Castle soon.

Edward Hargraves, a packer at the Cartwright, had his left hand seriously injured yesterday by having it caught between the jam of a door and a cask he was rolling out of the packing shed. He will be unable to work for several days.

During the latter part of this week extensive repairs will be made to the engine at the Union. The machinery has been partially repaired recently, and the figgermen are much pleased at the manner in which it now works.

Smith McDole, who has been employed as a sticker-up at the East Liverpool, has resigned his position. His place will be filled by Roy Ridsen, who has been employed at the same plant as an apprentice presser.

John, better known as "Nipper" Owen, a biscuit kilnman at Cartwright, was injured by falling in a kiln last Friday, has resumed his bench. His injuries were not so serious as was at first thought.

Walter Bettridge, who has been seriously ill at his home on Walnut street for several weeks, is able to be out. It is not thought he will be able to resume his trade as a dipper.

Willis Stewart, who has been employed as a jiggerman at the East Palestine pottery for some time, has returned to this city. He has taken a position at the Harker.

Work was suspended at the Diamond yesterday afternoon while some needed repairs were being made to the engine. The clay department resumed this morning as usual.

James Bowles, a dipper at the Cartwright, who has been ill at his home in Center alley for several weeks, is able to be out. He will return to work next week.

James Lowers, a kilnman at the Goodwin, has resigned his position and left yesterday for Lisbon, where he has taken a position with the Thomas China company.

Neal Laird, a kilnhand at the Union, who has been confined to his home for several days on account of an injury received to his back, has resumed his bench.

William Grice, a packer at the Cartwright, who has been ill at his home on Trentvale street with pneumonia, resumed work yesterday.

John "Beezum" Elliott, a kilnhand at the Oliver China at Sebring, is visiting his wife at the home of M. C. Hollinger, of Fourth street.

Miss Mary McCarter, who has been working as a stamper at Laughlin No. 2, has been transferred to the general decorating department.

Twelve men now compose the glost crew at the Buckeye. This is the largest crew that has worked at the plant for several months.

Contractor Gamble went to Barborton yesterday where he will superintend the work of finishing the kilns at the new pottery.

George Horner, bench boss at the Buckeye, has been ill at his home in Calcutta for a week. He returned to work yesterday.

COUNTY CLERK McNUTT STANDS GOOD FOR EXPENSES.

Arrangements Satisfactory to the Local Committee—A Talk on Citizens' Ticket.

The city Republican central committee has succeeded in procuring the necessary money from the county Republican central committee to defray the expenses which will be incurred in the county primary election.

The city committee passed a resolution that no county primary would be held unless the county committee furnished $50 for expenses. The action taken by the city committee has been much ridiculed, but the committee stood firm.

At a meeting of the committee held last evening a communication from J. S. McNutt, secretary of the county central committee, was read.

It stated that there would have been no difficulty in supplying the $50 if the request had come earlier. Now there is no money in the treasury, and Secretary McNutt proposed to give his personal check for the amount, necessary, if the Wellsville committee would state by return mail the exact cost of the election.

The actual cost of the election will be much less than $50, and the arrangement is satisfactory.

Other business of the committee came up. It was stated that a $20 deficiency in the treasury when the present committee took charge of Republican affairs had never been settled. No misappropriation was charged and the matter will be further investigated at the next meeting.

Edward Martin thought that the citizens' central committee ought to be asked to withdraw its public endorsement of several of the candidates whose names are on the Republican ticket. His reason was that every man endorsed by the citizens' committee would be handicapped to such an extent that he would never have any show at a succeeding election. "The people in general will not vote for a man endorsed by a church committee," stated Martin.

Some of the members did not think it advisable to take action on the question, and it was dropped.

J. R. Stoakes was elected chairman of the committee. Edwin Alton was elected secretary and A. C. Baker treasurer. The following names were supplied to fill the places of those who were originally placed in nomination, but who refused to run: Harry Moore, for school board; Sheridan Barnett, for county trustee.

Several committees were appointed to make preparations for necessary literature and finances and also for the purpose of procuring campaign speakers.

NOT CARS BUT ENGINES

The Scarcity of the Latter an Embarrassment to Many Industries.

The complaints among the officials of the many industrial plants in this city in regard to their not being able to procure cars for the shipment of their product remain prevalent.

It seems that the necessary cars cannot be obtained at any cost. As a result the Wellsville business men concerned are daily losing an enormous amount of money.

A railway official stated last evening that the present state of affairs is not due to there being no cars, but to the scarcity of engines. In explaining he said:

"Eighteen engines belonging to the C. & P. company are now being used on the Ft. Wayne road. However, the engines will be returned in a month or so, as by that time the lake region will have opened and it is absolutely necessary that the C. & P. have all the engines obtainable at that time, if not it will be impossible to handle the freight. During the winter season shipping is generally scant on the C. & P. and prolific on the Ft. Wayne, so it is deemed advisable by both companies to borrow and lend during their alternate seasons."

DEATH-LADEN WIRE

Shocked a Team of Horses And Rendered Them Helpless—Men Narrowly Escaped.

A telephone wire dangling in the air in close proximity to the corner of First and Liverpool streets, charged with electricity due to its contact with a trolley wire, resulted disastrously to a team of horses and came very near causing the loss of two human lives at an early hour last evening.

Joseph and George Withers, farmers living near Glasgow, were returning home in a wagon when their horses fell on the ground as if dead. In seeking to discover the cause they narrowly escaped contact with the wire in the darkness. It is said both horses will be useless. The accident delayed street car traffic nearly an hour.

Why Did They Abandon Pompeii?

At a period when newspaper discussions were rather vapid, despite the accredited appearance of the sea serpent and the arrival of the large potato, Max Nordau in an Austrian journal propounded a problem that should lead to useful inquiry:

Why was it that the inhabitants of Pompeii did not return to their homes after the destruction of the city?

Of the 30,000 inhabitants a few hundreds at most seem to have lost their lives. The eruption of Vesuvius lasted only a few days. The deposit of lava and ashes was not very thick. The houses might have been easily repaired. Many of them stand to this day. They were beautiful houses, many of them, richly appointed and containing valuables of great price. Had the Pompeians no love of home, or were they too superstitious, or did their terror at the eruption make them believe the disaster might come again?

TARIFF BILL PASSED.

The Philippine Measure Went Through In Senate, 46 Ayes to 26 Nays.

MARYLAND MEN WRANGLER.

Wellington and McComas Engage In Hot Talk—Frye Decided South Carolina Senators Could Not Vote. Some Amendments to Tariff Bill.

Washington, Feb. 25.—After eight hours of tumultuous debate yesterday the senate, shortly before 7 o'clock last evening, passed the Philippine tariff bill by a vote of 46 to 26, as a strictly party vote. Mr. Tillman and Mr. McComas, the two senators from South Carolina, who on Saturday last were declared by the senate to be in contempt because of their fight in the chamber, were not permitted by voice or by vote to participate in the proceedings.

The question as to their right to vote precipitated a sharp debate, lasting nearly two hours. Mr. Turner (Dem., Wash.) contended vigorously for the right of the two senators to cast their votes, and he was sustained by Mr. Patterson (Colo.) Mr. Bailey (Texas) and other Democrats. They held that even though the two senators actually were under arrest and in the custody of the sergeant-at-arms they could demand that they be allowed to vote, as the senate had not passed on their case.

Mr. Foraker, Mr. Aldrich and other Republicans held that the senators clearly could not participate in any of the proceedings of the senate until they had purged themselves of contempt and the senate had removed the ban placed on them.

Frye Decided Against Senators.

The president pro tem, Mr. Frye, held that the two senators could not vote, and he was sustained by a majority of the senate.

During the debate on the Philippine bill Mr. McComas and Mr. Wellington, of Maryland, became involved in a controversy, in the course of which the latter declared that if Mr. McComas should make his statements outside of the senate chamber he would brand them as a malicious falsehood. He was called to order promptly and resumed his seat amid considerable excitement.

Many amendments were offered to the Philippine bill, but except those offered by the committee, only one, an amendment restricting the operation of the tariff laws enacted by the Taft commission, was passed. The amendment of Mr. Foraker, fixing the rate of duties levied upon products coming into the United States from the Philippines at 50 per cent of the Dingley rates, instead of 75 per cent, as fixed in the bill, was lost, but it received a large Republican vote. Had the Democrats voted for it as a party it would have carried, but many Democrats voted against it.

As passed the measure provides that articles imported into the Philippine archipelago from the United States shall be required to pay the duties levied against them by the Philippine commission and paid upon like articles imported into the archipelago from foreign countries; that articles imported into the United States from the Philippines shall pay a duty of 75 per cent of the rates fixed by the Dingley law, less any export taxes paid upon the articles sent from the Philippine archipelago as required by the Philippine commission. All articles now imported free into the United States shall be hereafter exempt from export duties imposed in the Philippines.

Exempts Navigation Laws.

The bill exempts the commerce placing between the United States and the Philippines from the operation of the navigation laws of the United States until Jan. 1, 1904, and authorizes the Philippine commission to issue licenses to craft now engaged in lighterage or exclusively harbor business, provided such craft are built in the United States or in the Philippines and owned by citizens of the United States or by inhabitants of the Philippine islands. The duties and taxes collected in pursuance of this act shall be paid into the treasury of the Philippine islands and used for their benefit.

All articles manufactured in bonded manufacturing warehouses of imported materials, or of materials subject to internal revenue tax, when shipped from the United States to the Philippines, shall be exempt from the internal revenue tax, and all taxes paid upon such articles shipped to the Philippine islands since Nov. 15, 1901, shall be refunded.

Save the Big Game Of Alaska

By WILLIAM T. HORNADAY, Director of the New York Zoological Park

THAT the tragedy of the bison may not be repeated in the case of the big game of Alaska a bill is to be immediately introduced in congress providing for a national game preserve in southern Alaska. Alaska contains the grandest hunting grounds in North America. They are inhabited by the giant moose, the largest antlered animal inhabiting the earth; the Kadiak brown bear, largest of all flesh eating land animals, and the mountain caribou, largest and finest of its genus. The snow white mountain sheep is there, the mountain goat, black and yellow bears and the rare, new glacier bear, as yet never seen in captivity and in only one museum. All these fine animals are being slaughtered by sportsmen, hide hunters, head hunters and Indians, who kill often five animals for every one that they properly consume.

IN THE UNITED STATES STATUTES THERE IS NOT ONE LINE OF GAME LAW, EITHER TO PROTECT THE GAME OF ALASKA OR RESTRICT ITS SLAUGHTER IN ANY NUMBER.

Nature has been millions of years in developing the wonderful animal forms now inhabiting this arctic province, which man is now thoroughly exterminating. UNLESS QUICK AND EFFECTIVE MEASURES ARE TAKEN BY CONGRESS THE NEXT TEN YEARS OF SLAUGHTER WILL LEAVE ALASKA ONLY A BARREN, LIFELESS WASTE OF RUGGED MOUNTAINS AND DREARY TUNDRAS. Already the western side of Alaska has been almost cleared of large mammalian life.

As if disposed by nature to make easy the task of preservation, this narrow strip of coastwise territory in southwestern Alaska, extending from the head of Bristol bay around to Yakutat bay, is today a natural park, stocked abundantly.

It is inhabited by a very small number of Indians and Aleuts and a very few white traders and hunters. CONGRESS SHOULD CREATE THIS TERRITORY A NATIONAL GAME PRESERVE AND PROVIDE FOR ITS EFFECTIVE PROTECTION AND REGULATION ON THE GENERAL LINES OF THE YELLOWSTONE PARK.

If it is found advisable to permit limited hunting under government license, let the law so provide. The interests of the natives can be conserved, but no Indian ever again should be permitted to slaughter big game at will. The shameful work in western Alaska should never be repeated in the south. The sale of breechloading firearms to natives in that territory should be stopped immediately.

CHARLESTON "LOST."

An Episode of the Telegraph After the Great Earthquake.

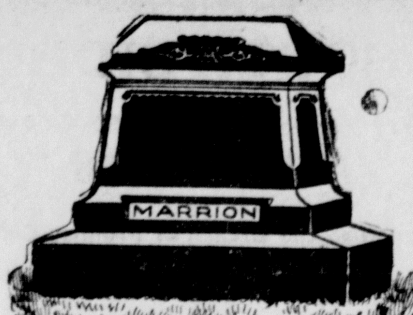

How powerfully the imagination may be stimulated by a story told in dots and dashes is illustrated by an episode of the Charleston earthquake, relates L. C. Hall. At the moment of the final shock every wire connecting Charleston with the outside world was instantly "lost." And as no other tidings could be had from the doomed city it was as if in an instant it had been swept from the face of the earth. And for many hours Charleston remained literally dead to the world.

The next morning before the average citizen had time to collect his wits the telegraph people had started out gangs of linemen to get the wires in working order. Operators in the principal offices within a radius of several hundred miles were set to calling "C. N." For a long time there was no response, but at last on the wire which I had in charge a slight answering signal was felt rather than heard—faint and flickering, like the first sign of returning life. From that moment my watch was, if possible, more diligent. For an hour or more I called, "Adjusted," and used every effort to revive the feeble pulse. I could fancy myself working desperately to resuscitate a half drowned man. Again I felt the flickering signal, and then once more all signs of life faded away. Finally as the wires were gradually cleared of debris the current began to strengthen, and then came the answering "C. N." weak and unsteady, but still sufficiently plain to be made out.

To me it sounded like a voice from the tomb, and I shouted aloud the tidings that Charleston was still in existence. Quickly the sounder was surrounded by a throng of excited telegraphers. The Morse was broken and unsteady at first, then the current grew stronger—the patient was growing better—and for a long time we listened to the labored clicking, until at last the worst was known. And at the end of the recital a great sigh went out from the hearts of all of us, as if literally in our presence a long buried city had been exhumed.—McClure's.

Horses and Color.

As regards color, gray horses live longest, roan horses nearly as long. Cream colored horses are deficient in staying power, especially in summer weather. Bays, on an average, are the best. Horses with black hoofs are stronger and tougher than others.

AN OPPORTUNITY

Many people would like to honor the memory of departed loved ones with a handsome monument, but the high prices demanded by the local monument dealers prevent them.

We sell and deliver fine monuments or headstones at much lower prices than similar stones can be obtained for elsewhere. Most of your local monument dealers work by expensive hand methods, while our work is done by the most improved labor saving machinery. Machine work not only lessens the cost of the monument, but insures better results as the moldings, letters, etc., are cut much deeper and smoother than by hand and therefore show plainer.

The stone we use is the very best—will not rust, discolor or become streaked as most granites do.

We sell to monument dealers at wholesale and also sell direct to the individual buyer, delivering complete in the cemetery.

Our handsome booklet with designs explains all. It's free if you mention this paper.

road had offered $17,000. The man told his story, and it was a terrible one. It seems that he was caught in the wreck and held by one foot, which was pinned down. The wreck caught fire, and the flames crept toward him. Firemen and others around saturated his clothing with water and placed wet blankets over him, but he was not released until his foot was burned off. It was a gruesome story.

A young minister who was naturally of a shy disposition was rather embarrassed at his first marriage ceremony and unwittingly reversed the usual order of the service, thus making the bridegroom promise to love and obey his blushing bride. The error passed unnoticed at the time, but shortly afterward it dawned upon the father of the bride that a mistake had occurred, and he said to the minister:

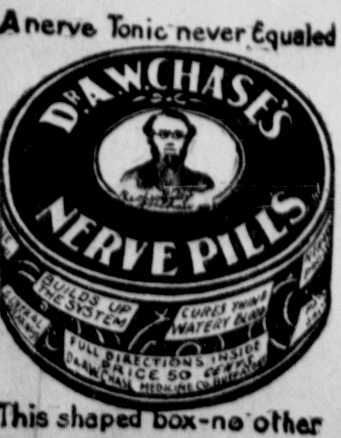

"I believe, Mr. —, you have made John promise to love and obey my daughter. Ah, well," he added after a pause and with a sly look at his better half, "I suppose it won't matter much. It generally comes to that anyway."—Pearson's.

TILLMAN'S RETORT.

Declared President Would Have Done as He Did, Under Like Circumstances.

BARRED FROM DINNER TO PRINCE

It Being Intimated to Him That He Should Withdraw Acceptance of Invitation, He Declined—Canceled by President.

Washington, Feb. 25.—As the outgrowth of the disgraceful scene in the senate on Saturday between Senators Tillman and McLaurin, President Roosevelt yesterday withdrew the invitation that had been extended the former to attend the dinner given at the White House in Prince Henry's honor. Senator Martin, of Virginia, who was invited in Senator Tillman's place, was not present at the dinner.

The president yesterday morning sent for Senator Cockrell, of Missouri, and asked him as a friend and Democratic colleague of Mr. Tillman to suggest to the latter the propriety of withdrawing his acceptance of the dinner invitation. The president explained his attitude in the matter and said that, in view of the contempt proceedings, Mr. Tillman's presence would not only be an affront to the senate, but a discourtesy to Prince Henry.

Tillman Declined to Accede.

Mr. Cockrell accepted the commission and later telephoned to the president that Mr. Tillman absolutely refused to withdraw his acceptance in response to the president's suggestion. The president then immediately canceled the invitation in a note he dispatched directly to Mr. Tillman.

The following was the letter from the White House withdrawing Mr. Tillman's invitation to dine there last night:

"White House, Feb. 24.

"The president regrets that he is compelled to withdraw the invitation to you to dine tonight at the White House.

Very truly yours,

"George B. Cortelyou,

"Secretary to the President."

Commenting upon the letter, Mr. Tillman says:

Hot Statement From Tillman.

"The president, of course, has the right to invite anyone he chooses to dine with him, officially or otherwise, and also has the right to withdraw such invitations. As I am not conscious of having done anything personal or official which gives the president the right to insult, I am surprised at his action. The invitation to the dinner came to me unsought and unexpectedly, and so far as the withdrawal is concerned it is a matter of absolute indifference to me. It is the motive behind it which seeks to put me in the condition of unworthiness to meet the president and his guest before final action by the senate. Prince Henry, the president's guest, comes from a country where custom makes it obligatory upon any man who regards himself a gentleman to promptly resent an insult, and the method is by challenge to a duel. That was once the custom, but it is now obsolete in the United States, and we have been forced as a people here to cling to the old Anglo-Saxon rule of considering the lie direct as the first blow, and no man could hold up his head in decent society should he, being near enough to answer the lie with a blow, not to give.

Likely Would Have Done the Same.

"As for my being in contempt of

Grateful people will talk. Tell their experience for the public good.

East Liverpool citizens praise Doan's Kidney Pills.

Kidney sufferers appreciate this. They find relief for every kidney ill. Read what this citizen says:

Mr. H. Thompson, of 306 Fourth street, presser at the D. E. McNicol pottery, and resident of East Liverpool for the past 45 years, says: "During my campaign experience between the years of '61 and '64 I contracted a weakness of the kidneys, and at intervals I had an aching pain across the small of my back, and was subject to attacks of muscular rheumatism, especially in damp weather. I was frequently so bad that I could scarcely get up when down and in fact could hardly get around at all. I tried many remedies endeavoring to get rid of the trouble, but found nothing until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy. They filled the bill exactly. They gave me almost immediate relief and ward off the last attack."

Sold for 50 cents per box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for late United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Sold by W. & W. Pharmacy.

WHERE ARE THE TWO GOBLINS?

the senate, which I presume is the excuse for this insult at the hands of the president, that I deny. I have been guilty of a breach of the rules and the privileges of the senate. The senate was not sitting as a court, but as a legislative assembly. It has the right to expel me if it sees fit, and I am ready to abide its judgment and action. It has the right to arrest me and to hold me in custody until it makes disposition of my case, but it has no right to gag me, and the president has no right to judge me guilty of conduct unbecoming a gentleman unless he believes all his antecedents, which lead one to believe that he would have done just as I did under the circumstances. As to which of us is the gentleman in this matter, in view of the unsought invitation to dinner at the White House and its indecent withdrawal, I am willing to abide by the judgment of all brave and self-respecting men."

Origin of the Sabbath.

The Sabbath as a religious institution is far older than the Pentateuchal legislation. It, too, can be traced back to a Babylonian prototype, not, however, as a day of rest from labor, but as a kind of atonement day, when by various rites and by observing certain restricted regulations the anger of the gods could be appeased. On this old institution the Hebrews ingrafted their religious ideas and produced the unique institution of a day observed as a respite from the week's toil and which, from being an "inauspicious" occasion, a dies irae, is viewed as a "delight."—Professor Jastrow in Independent.

The young man's health is rather seriously impaired. He has been in school uninterruptedly for 16 years and the strain has probably been too great. He is said to be a fine student. He will remain here indefinitely, or until he is entirely recovered.

MUSICIANS' UNION

A Local Has Been in Existence Here For the Past Three Years.

George B. Mackey, of Haines' Military band, wishes to correct an impression which was caused by an item appearing in this paper last Saturday with reference to the organization of the local branch of the American Federation of Musicians. Mr. Mackey says the union has been in existence for the past three years, as he has been its secretary.

"The musicians of this city had previous to January 1, 1902, been affiliated with the National League of Musicians. This latter organization was abandoned for the American Federation of Musicians for the reason that the new society is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor."

Overdoing It.

Borus (who has just submitted manuscript)—You don't like it because it's somewhat facetious. You forget that "a little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men."
Naggus—Yes; but, blame it, Borus, this is all nonsense!—Exchange.

A BUSINESS MAN FOR CITY COUNCIL

ELECTION OF GEORGE PEACH PRACTICALLY CONCEDED.

One of the Best Councilmen the City Has Ever Had Will Again Be a Member.

As the day of the Republican primary election draws near the friends of the several candidates aspiring to the different offices to be filled take more than ordinary interest in the race.

The nomination of some of the candidates is conceded, particularly George Peach, candidate for council from the Third ward. Mr. Peach, as everybody knows, is one of the best councilmen the city has ever had. His record as a member of the city's legislative body is one of which not only the people of the Third ward are proud, but the entire city as well. During the time he was a member of council many grave questions frequently arose, questions that were of vital importance to the taxpayers of the city, many of them calling for the expenditure of the people's money in large sums, yet not one of them was ever sanctioned or voted for by Mr. Peach unless it was for the best interests of the city. His record is an open book. He is a capable official, because he is a business man of more than ordinary ability. There is perhaps no candidate so situated that he can devote as much time to the office as he. His time is quite largely devoted to his vast real estate holdings, which are located in different parts of the city. Being so situated he is at all times thoroughly posted on every improvement that is needed. He has always been a staunch Republican, which fact is so well known that comment at this time is unnecessary.

Encouraging reports come from all parts of his ward and there is no doubt that he will be nominated next Saturday by a handsome majority.

A BOOMERANG

Some People Seem to Be Hunting for Trouble.

Salem News Feb. 22.

The East Liverpool Crisis, under the heading of "Mean Treatment," insinuates that a candidate from the southern side of the county has been discriminated against by Salem manufacturers, who are said to have refused him admission into their works for canvassing purposes, while a candidate from the north side for the same office was allowed free entrance to all the Liverpool potteries. The paper in question makes a great to-do over the matter, as though there was some underhanded arrangement to benefit one candidate at the expense of another, and that the manufacturers were in the scheme. There is doubtless little if any cause for complaint of this sort. Manufacturers in both Salem and East Liverpool have their rules regarding such matters, and the intentions as a rule being to treat all candidates alike. If there has been any departure at this time from this rule or custom—which is doubtful—the Salem candidates have nothing to do with it and would regret anything which smacked of partiality as much as anybody.

MAUTZ WITHDRAWS

And Throws His Support to the Laboring Man's Candidate.

To the Public: Having come to the conclusion that the interests of the small property owners of the East End are dependent on the election of a man who will represent their interests in council and realizing that I, as a candidate, will only complicate matters in my ward, I respectfully withdraw as a candidate for the nomination.

While I have all the sympathy of the working men at heart I feel that Mr. James Jameson, being a member of a potters' local and a staunch supporter of all union labor, is in a position to more freely ask the support of this contingent, and for this reason I, while thanking all my friends for their promised support, ask them to transfer their preference to Mr. Jameson, who is a man capable of filling the position and one who will see to it that the interests of the laboring people is first of importance.

AN UNUSUAL LAWSUIT

Colored Girl Sues a Business Firm to Get $6.75 Paid on a Sacque.

Gertie Freeman, a young colored girl employed at Walsh's hotel, is the plaintiff in an action against Wabstsky Bros., which was set for a hearing in Justice McCarron's court yesterday afternoon.

The girl claimed she had paid $6.75 as part payment for a sacque, with the understanding that in case it did not fit she was to get her money back. She further alleged that when she finally got the garment it was unsatisfactory, and when she returned it she was refused the money she had paid. She brought suit to get the $6.75.

At the hour set for trial the defendants failed to appear, and the 'quire rendered judgment for the plaintiff for the amount asked. It is understood the case will be appealed to common pleas court and friends of the girl have promised to lend her financial assistance.
